SUPERIOR COURT

Tedious Case of Smith vs. Cowley
Given to Jury

The case of Smith vs. Cowley, which has been on trial in the superior court for several days, went to the jury this morning. The judge's charge occupied less than half an hour. The case is brought to recover a sum amounting to about $1600, which the plaintiff, Miss Smith, claims is due her from the estate of the late Charles Cowley for services rendered. She maintains that he engaged her to do typewriting and that she was to receive the sum of $100 per annum. She says that the money was not paid her and, therefore, she entered suit. The defense was a general denial that any contract or agreement had been entered into. Many witnesses, including handwriting experts, were called by each side.

TWELVE ENTOMBED

In Mine Fire at Layden, Colo.---
Fire Started Last Night

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 15.—Twelve men are reported entombed in shaft 12 of the Leydon Coal Co. at Layden, Colo., 14 miles west of Denver. The workings are said to be on fire and it is feared all are dead.

The fire started about 9 o'clock last night, the result of an explosion, and the timbering of the shaft was ablaze in a moment, cutting off escape in that way.

Shaft number 1 is separated from shaft number 12 by a narrow wall. A rescue party under the direction of Samuel Perry, president of the Leydon Coal Co., was endeavoring early today to break down the wall and the twelve imprisoned men could be heard working madly in their efforts to gain freedom. There is no hope of stopping the fire at present and every effort is being made to gain an entrance for the entombed men through shaft number 1.

Theatrical Manager Makes Offer to Hattie LeblancShe Also Has Received Several Offers of Marriage—Lawyer
Johnson Flooded With Mail for His Client

CAMBRIDGE, Dec. 15.—A tub full of mail for Hattie Leblanc, the little French Canadian girl who was acquitted by a jury yesterday of the murder of Clarence F. Glover of Waltham, was received at the Cambridge jail today. Hundreds of souvenir postcards, each bearing a message of congratulation, were in this morning's mail and an immense pile of letters. The letters included many proposals of marriage and several theatrical managers offered the girl a large salary for a stage contract. One Boston theatrical agent made an offer of $500 a week. Melvin M. Johnson, the girl's chief counsel, was fairly swamped with letters at his office in Boston today. Hattie remains at Mr. Johnson's home in Cambridge, where she will be quarantined until her departure within a few days for her old home in West Archa.

silver, with attentive waiters standing behind her chair ready to do her bidding. Hattie Leblanc enjoyed her first supper outside of the East Cambridge jail for more than a year past, at a fashionable apartment hotel last night. She sat at Attorney Johnson's table in the general dining-room, while on every side of her were evidences of wealth and luxury such as her eyes had never before seen. As Hattie entered the room with Attorney and Mrs. Johnson, there was an involuntary hush and all eyes were turned upon the little French girl who was beaming with happiness. When the waiter came to take her order, Hattie, without consulting the bill of fare, unthinkingly called for prison fare—bread and coffee. But before the half smiling waiter could fill the order, Mrs. Johnson came to the rescue of her guest and literally ordered everything on the bill from soups to nuts. After supper, guests of the house insisted upon meeting Hattie and so she and Mrs. Johnson held an impromptu reception in one of the small reception rooms. Women in rich and costly evening gowns, the cream of Cambridge society, crowded about the bewildered little girl to shake her hand and express their good wishes. And as a more lasting expression, a purse was started which, within a few moments had reached goodly proportions. To this purse will be added innumerable checks which have been pouring in on Hattie's attorney during the day, from all parts of the country.

Later Hattie met newspapermen in the Johnson apartments, and although she was visibly fatigued from the excitement attendant upon her release from custody, talked at considerable length in her broken English, declaring that she was very, very happy. As she was talking the clock on the Johnson mantel chimed forth the hour of nine and Hattie gave an involuntary glance at the timepiece. "What made you start when you heard the clock?" she was asked. Smilingly the little girl replied: "The lights go out in the jail at 9 o'clock." "Just think," she said, "last Christmas I had my Christmas dinner in jail and this year I shall be home. West Archa isn't much of a place compared with Boston, but it's better than jail."

WITNESS GARDNER "FIRED"
WALTHAM, Dec. 14.—J. Harold Gardner, a delivery clerk in the employ of the Waltham laundry, who was a prominent witness for the defense in the trial of Hattie Leblanc, was discharged as soon as the verdict was made known to the officials of the laundry company.

Samuel D. Elmore, trustee under the will of Clarence F. Glover, was at the laundry yesterday noon when news of the jury's action reached there.

Supt. McCall informed Gardner that his services were no longer required. He was paid off and dismissed.

Supt. McCall did not care to discuss the dismissal of Gardner. All he would say was that Gardner had severed his connection with the laundry and he had nothing further to say.

Gardner had expected something of the sort. He said he knew that it meant his job to go on the witness stand, but he was summoned by the defense and he had to go. He told only the truth on the witness stand, he declared.

The loss of his position did not seem to bother him, as he felt satisfied that he would soon get another situation.

Mr. Elmore was asked last night why Gardner had been discharged, and said:

Gardner was discharged for the good of the service.

"Is that all you care to say about it?" he was asked.

"Yes," replied Mr. Elmore. "That is all there is to say about it."

ELMORE'S STATEMENT
CAMBRIDGE, Dec. 15.—Samuel D. Elmore, executor of the will of Clarence F. Glover for whose murder Hattie Leblanc was tried and acquitted, issued a statement last night in which he said:

"The Leblanc trial is over and the verdict is rendered. If the Glover brothers who are contesting the will of Clarence F. Glover are satisfied that his memory has been sufficiently maintained and his widow's reputation blackened, it is to be hoped that the public will have a rest from the whole miserable affair.

"I regret the unwarranted and baseless insinuations made during the heat of a most sensational trial, but I am confident to await the judgment of a fair-minded public when the real facts are presented. The statement from the bench that there is not even sufficient evidence to secure an indictment against anyone should be sufficient justification for all my acts."

A representative of the Glover brothers who are contesting the will of Clarence F. Glover issued a statement in their behalf last night, in which he said:

"The Glover brothers are not only willing, but anxious, to do all that they can to aid the district attorney in unraveling the mystery surrounding the murder of their brother Clarence.

There is much evidence which was not brought out in the trial just closed and should the district attorney see fit to act further they believe there is another course which can be pursued."

GIFTS TO HATTIE
CAMBRIDGE, Dec. 15.—Already Attorney Melvin M. Johnson has received many financial gifts for Hattie Leblanc. She is practically destitute. All the clothes the girl owned are held by Lawyer Samuel D. Elmore and other friends of Mrs. Elmore.

Even the clothes she wore at the trial were supplied through persons who have been charitably inclined.

The court allows a fee of $500 for the defense of the girl. Of this Attorney Johnson receives nothing, as the whole amount has been expended in the preparation of the case.

$100 FOR HATTIE
WALTHAM, Dec. 15.—Postmaster Charles J. Shepard last night announced the receipt of a check for $100 from a party at Kennebunkport, Me., which, it is stipulated, is to be used to pay expenses of Hattie Leblanc on her trip back to her humble home at West Archa.

Postmaster Shepard declined to give the name of the donor, but said that he had turned the money over to those who would see that it is used for the purposes intended.

JOHNSON'S LUCKY DAY
WALTHAM, Dec. 15.—Yesterday was Attorney Melvin M. Johnson's lucky day. Besides the pleasure he experienced in getting the acquittal of Hattie Leblanc, he received word he had been appointed a member of the board of directors of the Grand Lodge of Free Masons in Massachusetts, and that the circuit court of appeals had sent down a decision in a case which involved $15,000 in his favor.

In the Case of Gately, Tr., Board of Trade Would Have It Investigated
vs. Kappler

Judge Harris, in the superior court, has rendered a verdict for the defendant in the case of Robert F. Gately, trustee vs. Sarah Kappler, on the report of Judge Fisher who, as master, heard the facts in the case.

Messrs. Farley and Tierney appeared for the defendant and the plaintiff was represented by James F. Owens.

In this case the trustee in bankruptcy sued to compel Mrs. Kappler to transfer to him certain property said to be valued at about $12,000 which he had conveyed to her about nine months before he was adjudged bankrupt.

Judge Harris' finding in the case is as follows:

Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Middlesex ss.

Lowell, November Sitting, 1910. Gately Tr. vs. Kappler.

Memorandum.

Upon the facts found and reported by the master I find, and rule, that there was good consideration for the conveyance to the defendant.

I also find and rule that the defendant had an equitable interest in the property conveyed.

I also find, and rule, that the interest of the bankrupt in said property was an undivided but uncertain interest not representing any ascertained, ascertainable or definite proportion of the whole.

Upon the facts found and reported by the master I find that there was no intent on the part of the defendant to defraud, hinder or delay future creditors of the bankrupt, and no intention on the part of the bankrupt to defraud his existing creditors, and that they were not in fact defrauded, hindered or delayed.

Defendant's objections to the report of the master numbered 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 10, 11, are sustained. Objections numbered 7, 8, 9, are overruled as being based wholly or in part upon evidence not reported. Plaintiff is not entitled to the conveyances and releases prayed for and injunctions upon conveyances and assignments by her of said property as her own should be dissolved. Let a decree be framed in accordance with above findings and rulings.

Robert O. Harris,
Justice Superior Court.

Wm. C. Dillingham, Asst. Clerk.

THEY WANT OFFICES

Several Aspirants for Positions at City Hall

The office holders at city hall are wearing a worried look these days. They are troubled as to the course the next city council will pursue when it comes time to elect officials and heads of departments for the year 1911.

Yesterday it was announced that John W. Daly would be a candidate for chairman of the board of aldermen and today the announcement was made that Aldermen-elect Jodoin and Gallagher would also like the position.

"Jerry" Connors said today that he has not made up his mind yet whether or not he will be a candidate for the position. "I have been on the floor during my entire service in the board," said Jerry, "and I think it is about as good a place as one can be, for then he has a chance to express himself more freely."

It is known that the aldermen-elect are working harmoniously and whatever suits the majority will govern the other members in their action on different matters that come before them.

City Clerk
It is certain that there will be a contest for city clerk. Already there is talk of democratic candidates for this position. Many names are mentioned but at present it is announced that the only candidate who has come out openly for the place is a young man named Fitzgerald, who is in the employ of the Armour Co. During the next few days others may announce their candidacy.

Principal Assessor
The term of Solomon Mayberry as principal assessor will expire next year and he will have opposition if he tries for election as undoubtedly he will. One of the candidates already mentioned is Dr. J. J. McCarthy, now chairman of the charity board.

City Solicitor
J. Joseph Hennessy has made formal announcement of his candidacy for city solicitor. Other candidates mentioned are Edward J. Tierney, J. Joseph O'Connor and Fisher H. Pearson.

City Messenger
There will be candidates galore, according to present indications, for Joe Pattee's job. John McCullough, the secretary of the Grocers and Butchers' association is anxious to fill the place, and others are feeling out their way before coming out with a statement of their candidacy. Owen Monahan, secretary of the democratic city committee is also a candidate.

Water Board
The term of Major Robert J. Crowley as a member of the water board expires this year and he said this morning that he will be a candidate for re-election.

Inspector of Wires
It is understood there will be other candidates. For inspector of wires the one most prominently mentioned is Mr. Mahan, who was nominated this year for the place, but failed to be confirmed by the aldermen. Mr. Mahan is a resident of Ward four and is an expert electrician in the employ of the Boston and Maine road.

There will be no opposition to City Engineer Bowers, and no talk is heard of any candidate for city treasurer outside the present incumbent, Andrew G. Stiles. There will be at least two candidates for superintendent of public buildings besides the present incumbent, James Dow.

MATRIMONIAL
Mr. Francis Garlick and Miss Anne Keane were united in marriage at the parochial residence of the Sacred Heart church, Wednesday evening. Rev. Fr. McDermott performed the ceremony. The bride was Miss Katherine Hyland and Mr. Joseph Carter was best man. The bride was gowned in cream silk and carried her roses and the bridegroom wore white silk. After a most enjoyable evening the bridal couple left on their honeymoon and on their return will reside at 530 Lawrence street.

MANAGER GRAY
IN NEW YORK LOOKING FOR PLAYERS

James J. Gray, manager of the Lowell baseball team, left Lowell last night for New York to attend the conference of baseball magnates in New York. Mr. Gray will be absent several days, and while away he expects to make several deals for players to strengthen the local team.

FIRE IN YARD
OCCASIONED AN ALARM FROM BOX 19

At 11.58 o'clock this forenoon an alarm from box 19 called the fire department to a yard on Gorham street, near the corner of Appleton street, where an ash barrel had caught fire. The blaze was an insignificant one and there was no damage.

if You Owe the City

The contract for the pump for the Centralville pumping station has been signed by the company to which the contract was granted and the company has furnished the necessary bond for half the contract price.

The contract has yet to be signed by the mayor and the members of the water board and a meeting for that purpose will be held today or tomorrow.

The water department is waiting patiently for the bridge to be built in Lincoln street. Everything is ready for the iron work of the bridge but the iron, it appears, is being delayed.

The water department is anxious to see the bridge in position so that the water pipes can be laid there.

The Mayor's Visitors
There were visitors galore at the city hall this forenoon and most of them were there to see Mayor Meehan, presumably for the purpose of congratulating him. Republicans, including members of the present city council, are still wondering how it happened. They are willing to acknowledge that they got an awful trimming at the polls last Tuesday, but they cannot account for it. Quite a number of discussions having to do with the election were heard at city hall this morning, especially on the elevator, which is one of the political chat-chat places at the municipal palace. There were a few democrats aboard who could tell their republican brethren how it all happened, but their republican brethren didn't take kindly to explanations from the other side.

Committee Meetings
The committee on electric wires met this afternoon and went out to view premises named in petitions to be acted upon later. The committee on public baths will meet at 7.30 this evening. The next regular meeting of the board of health will be held one week from today.

About Recounts
It is generally understood that several recounts are going to be asked for but up to the noon hour today no petitions for the same had been filed at the office of the city clerk. Victor F. Jewett was one of the defeated candidates for alderman on the republican ticket, and he is now president of the common council. Mr. Jewett was at the city hall this forenoon and speaking relative to the report that several recounts would be petitioned for. Mr. Jewett said that while he believed an aldermanic recount would be asked for, he would not be the one to ask for it. He said he did not intend to ask for a recount and did not want to have anything to do with it.

Send in Your Bills

If you have a bill against the city and you want your money this year it is up to you to send in your bill. All bills, to be paid this year, must reach the city auditor's office on or before the 24th day of this month.

The committee on accounts for 1910 will hold its last meeting about December 28, and all bills that have not been received and prepared for the committee will have to go over to next year and will be included in the February draft for 1911.

LOCAL POLICE COURT

Judge Hadley Gave Interesting Talk on Its History

Before Lowell Historical Society
Last Evening—His Honor the Third Justice to Preside Over
Police Court

An interesting history of the Lowell police court was given by Judge Samuel P. Hadley before the Lowell Historical Society at Memorial hall. It was the most complete and most interesting historical paper that the society has ever heard, and Judge Hadley enriched it with anecdotes of the men he has met. The paper will be a valuable contribution to the society. The present police court-room was dedicated on March 1, 1875. During the existence of the court Judge Hadley estimates that 250,000 criminal cases have been handled and 35,000 civil cases. Solon W. Stevens presided at the meeting and introduced Judge Hadley. Mr. Stevens said that Lowell stands among the very first cities of the nation in the matter of morals and the orderly conduct of its citizens. Judge Hadley was introduced as the "first citizen of the city."

The judge began with a description of how the court work of the early township was handled by justices of the peace, and how, as the town grew, a police court was established. The first such court in the commonwealth was in Salem in 1821. The next was in Newburyport in 1823. Lowell and Newburyport were given police courts. The establishing act contained nine sections and makes interesting reading. Gov. Levi Lincoln approved the act on March 2 and the court was opened March 31. The first session was held April 2, 1822, and number one on the criminal docket and the first case to come before the new court was that of Timothy Hoyt vs. Simon Hardy for assault and battery. The warrant was served by Constable Parker. The defendant pleaded guilty and a fine of $1 and costs was assessed. There was no jail in those days and the prisoners were sent to Concord and Cambridge. The old brick jail in West-ern avenue was erected in 1853. A comprehensive history of the various court rooms occupied much time, and proved entertaining, especially where the court was turned out of the Market street building in 1868 to make room for some military companies and the peripatetic performances of the court in seeking suitable quarters until 1874, when the city government ordered the present court rooms prepared.

A reference was made to the "Timothy Pearson Court" of 1852 conducted by one Timothy Pearson to satisfy the demands of the prohibition element in enforcing the state prohibition law. Judge Hadley described this court and declared that its end was a relief to all. An interesting anecdote was the establishment of the big fire alarm bell on the Market street court when the court room was in the third story. The big bell fell and caused a panic in the court room which was under it. The next night, June 29, 1859, this new bell sounded for a fire in the same building and Judge Hadley describes the hasty removal of the court records in meal and salt bags collected from S. N. Wood's store, across the street. Jackson hall was used as a temporary court. During the police court's peripatetic performances there came the smallpox epidemic in 1872 and the court room was daily fumigated with burned gun powder.

Judge Hadley is the third justice to preside over the Lowell police court. In 1835, when the court was established, Hon. Joseph Locke of Billerica was appointed justice, with Hon. Nathaniel Wright and Hon. Joel Adams as special justices. Judge Nathan Crosby was appointed to succeed Judge Locke in 1846 and he served 39 years, death ending his services in 1885. Judge Hadley was then appointed.

Prior to this time Judge Hadley had served as clerk of court from 1857 to 1885, thus gaining an intimate personal knowledge of its history during that time. Data provided him with the details of the early history and this was amplified with personal reminiscences of the lawyers and men connected with the earliest dockets on file in the court.

ON MORAL ISSUE

Andrew Carnegie Will Speak on War

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Stimulated by the magnitude of Andrew Carnegie's gift of $11,500,000 for the abolition of war, between nations and by the knowledge that the fund will be used largely for objects akin to its own, the American Society for Judicial Settlement of International Disputes will open a three days international conference tonight, more confident than ever before of the ultimate attainment of its aim—the establishment of a permanent tribunal of arbitral justice. Andrew Carnegie will be the principal speaker of the evening, his subject being "The Moral Issue of War," and it is expected that he will make further explanation of the gift announced yesterday. It is admitted today by many of the delegates that while the plans for the administration of the fund have not yet taken definite shape they must needs comprehend hearty cooperation with the movement of the court of arbitral justice as one of the most effectual instruments in the crusade for the abolition of war.

Some idea of the importance of the gathering which begins tonight may be had from the fact that arrangements are being made for the translation of the proceedings into every language and the complete publication thereof, as well as the dissemination of the literature to the four corners of the globe.

Secretary of State Knox, who was to have attended tonight, will not be present because of a conflict of appointment, but he will attend other sessions. President Taft's address being deferred to the closing banquet on Saturday evening.

IN BADGER GAME

Four Persons Arrested
by Washington Police

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—A daring and sensational badger game has been unearched by the local police, resulting in the arrest of Mrs. James Knott, a handsome young woman, her husband, his brother Benjamin, aged 34, and Alton Armstrong, 20 years old. All are held under a charge of blackmail except Benjamin Knott, who is under $1000 bonds to appear as a witness. The complainant in the case is Henry Rosenthal, senior member of a mercantile firm in this city. Rosenthal alleges, and the alleged confession made to the police by two of the men arrested confirms his statements, that he was surprised in the room of Mrs. Knott in one of the most fashionable apartment houses of the city by her husband, who pressed a revolver to his head and demanded under pain of death that he sign a check for $5000. Under the persuasion of the menacing weapon Rosenthal complied. Knott thereupon exhibited photographs of Rosenthal and Mrs. Knott that had been taken in her room. The police found a brilliant mercury light suspended above the bed in the apartment, and a hole in the wall separating it from the adjoining room, through which the pictures had been made.

At this stage in the proceedings Armstrong and Benjamin Knott entered the room, and, according to Rosenthal, became parties to the plan to force him to pay his way out of the difficulty in which he found himself. Rosenthal told the story of the affair to his partner, who arranged for a coup by the police. He told Rosenthal to arrange with Knott to call at the store to receive $2000, which Rosenthal had told Knott was all that he would be able to pay in cancellation of a $5000 check. When Knott appeared a detective was on hand and heard the conversation between Knott and Rosenthal and the arrest followed.

stead, and his ability to recover saved him time and again. In the last few rounds Morris forced the boxing, and in the 10th and 11th rounds he got in some stiff punches that made Flynn wince. It was "Porky's" slugging left that did the greatest damage, the East Boston lad reaching Morris almost at will.

Flynn was the cleverer of the pair, and in the fighting he roughed it so much that Morris complained of Flynn's elbow work, which did considerable damage. Sam Lannford was in Flynn's corner as was also Bob Armstrong. Lannford was introduced with a challenge to box any man in the world. Sandy Ferguson was in Morris' corner, and before the main bout, Lannford and Sandy, who are to meet soon, had an oral tilt that delighted a crowd.

Flynn did all the leading in the first round and ripped the left to the face several times. It was Flynn's round by a slight margin, but in the second Morris evened things with a couple of heavy rights to the body.

BARGES STRANDED

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Two barges each loaded with 500 tons of coal for New Haven, today lie stranded in the East river, one of them sunk in 30 feet of water and another beached on the rocks off North Brother island. Both barges had them in low broke down and they floated on the rocky shoals nearby. Their crews were rescued by the tug.

HOLYOKE, Dec. 15.—As 400 pupils were marching out of the parochial school of the Immaculate Conception parish today because of a fire in the basement, George Boissy, aged 10 years, tripped on the top of the steps outside the main entrance to the building and in his fall bowled over a number of children in front of him until at one time between 150 and 200 little ones were piled in a heap on the steps and in the yard. The Boissy boy's skull was fractured and he is not expected to recover. It was reported also that a little girl had broken her leg.

During the forenoon session fire was discovered in a paper bin in the basement. The fire alarm of the school was sounded and the pupils marched out of the class rooms in good order. A flight of stone steps leads from the ground to the main entrance of the building and it was on the top of these steps that the Boissy boy slipped. As he fell forward into the children in front of him they were knocked down like a row of dominoes. With the exception of the Boissy lad and the little girl whose leg was believed to have been broken, none of the children was badly hurt. The fire was extinguished without damage.

LAKE AND TENNEY

Both in Right on Boston Deal

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—It is all over but the passing of a few more dollars and the Boston National baseball club will be in the hands of William Henry Russell, L. C. Page and E. J. Murphy. These gentlemen arrived in New York yesterday morning and held a conference with John P. Harris.

The sum of $35,000 was passed to the present owner, making the amount paid down $80,000. Mr. Harris is satisfied now that L. C. Page has come into the deal that there isn't a chance for the transfer being held up.

Harris will remain in New York the remainder of the week in order to be on hand when these Boston men are ready to take up the remainder of the stock.

"I will not say that I am sorry," said Mr. Harris, "for it would have meant that I would have had to devote considerable time to the club had I held the stock. The whole thing developed rapidly when once started and I am sure it will go through."

Harris Casts Boston's Vote

Mr. Harris sat in the league meeting throughout the session yesterday and voted upon all questions, as he will continue to do today. Just what day the actual transaction of delivering the club over to the new owners will be is not possible to even guess. That he expects it to happen this week is clearly evident.

C. S. Hill, of the firm of Russell, Ludden, Hill & Young, came over with Messrs. Page and Murphy. He said that the only thing that prevented the deal was the arrival of the few papers from Boston. "The deal has practically been put through," said he.

"On the managerial question," he added, "Mr. Lake will be satisfied." Then Mr. Hill referred to the story that President Hedges of the Browns was likely to acquire Lake.

Fred Tenney will be the manager of the Boston club, but this will be announced later. One of the new owners will follow the team from the time of the spring training trip up to the close of the season. In this way it should operate for the benefit of the team, for "the man behind the gun" will always be present.

"Everything will be open and above board in the conduct of the club. Nothing of interest will be kept from the public and everything possible to build up the club will be done."

Mr. Page didn't have much to say concerning the club, or its prospects, nor did Mr. Murphy. Mr. Russell didn't appear at the Breslin.

Hedges Likes Manager Lake

On the change of managers of the Boston Nationals there is much to say. President Robert Lee Hedges has not picked a manager for the Browns and is not likely to do so until the affairs of the Boston club are cleared up. When asked if he were going to take a manager from Boston, he said: "I don't see how I can talk business with a man already signed up for 1911 in the National league. I will say, however, that I consider Fred Lake a valuable man for any club."

Manager Lake's attitude is in keeping with the dignified course he has pursued throughout the season. He is signed up for 1911 by President John P. Harris and is letting everyone talk as much as they like. Until the Boston club is purchased by the Russell-Page-Murphy syndicate, and not until he is told "one way or the other," is Lake likely to indicate anything more than that he is satisfied.

He is discussing trades for players and not meeting with much success.

"There is one thing about every manager of a ball-end club. You are not worried by other managers. If there is anything started you have to do the starting," he said.

Late yesterday afternoon Fred Tenney, who had been in conference in Mr. Page's room with Messrs. Hill and Murphy, came down and got Fred Lake. They returned to the room and were closeted for over two hours.

Lake's Advice is Given

Fred Lake said when the little confab broke up that they had not discussed the question of settlement with him, but that all the talk had been as to what was best to build up the team. "I gave them my ideas upon this to the best of my ability," said Lake.

So the mystery is now clear. The Boston men will have the club soon. Fred Tenney will manage it, and when the time comes Fred Lake's contract with the Boston club for 1911 will be discussed and a settlement effected.

The club is in the limelight, which is regarded as good advertising, and some time it may be found out of the last peg in the standing.

NEW CHARTER

COMMITTEE WILL SUBMIT ITS REPORT TUESDAY

The committee appointed to draft a city charter will make its report to the committee of sixty at a meeting to be held at the board of trade rooms next Tuesday. It is said that the report embodies a number of important recommendations and the discussion of the propositions bids fair to be most interesting.

BOWLING GAMES

Lively Contests on the Alleys

Several fast games were played last night, and at each of the local alleys great crowds assembled to watch the progress of the matches. Nichols Pats fell down before the Electric Light team; the Clerks proved too strong for the Solicitors, and the Primrose Quint was easy for the Wamesita. Two teams from Tyngsboro, the married and the single men played a close game with the big pins, the former winning by 25 pins. The scores:

SENATOR LODGE

WILL ADDRESS LEGISLATURE ON JAN. 3

BOSTON, Dec. 15.—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, who is a candidate for election to a fourth term at the coming session of the legislature, sent word from Washington today accepting the invitation of the republican leaders of the two branches to make a public address and arrangements were at once perfected for a meeting in Symphony hall on the evening of January 2d.

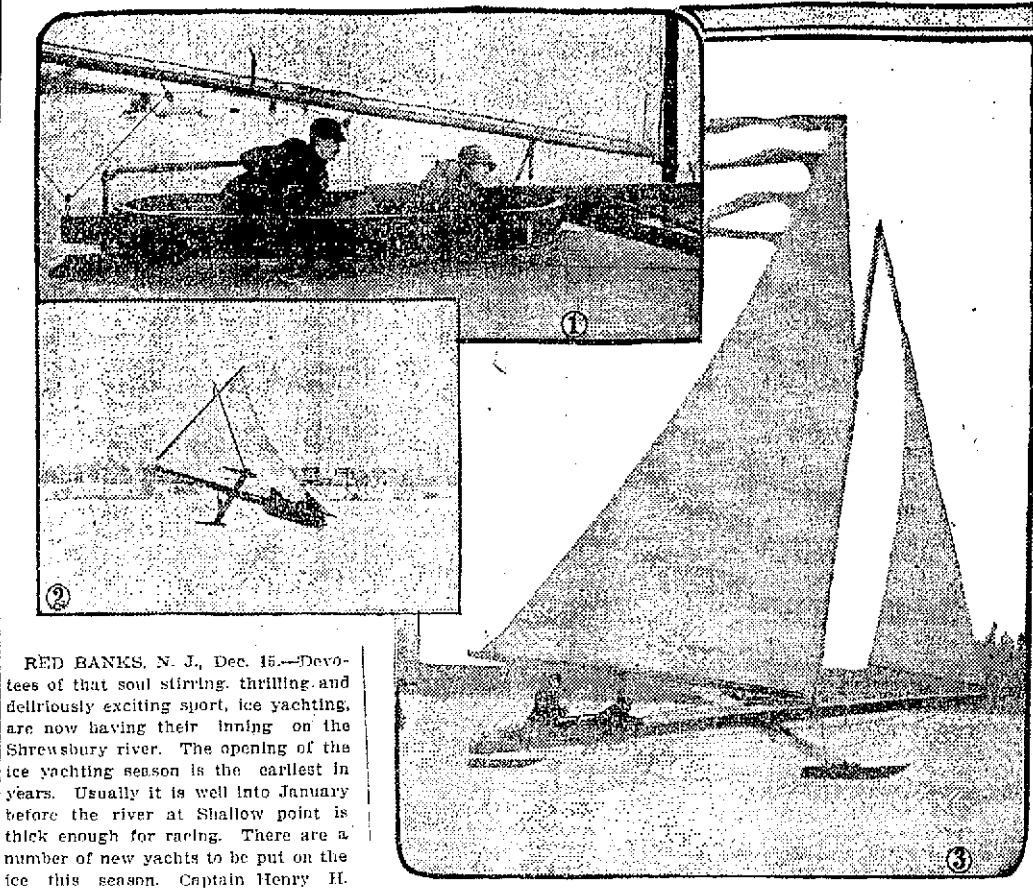

It is expected that Senator Lodge will announce his attitude on several public questions and reply to criticisms of his record by Gov.-elect Eugene N. Foss and several republican insurgents.

ICE YACHTS PRACTISING FOR THE SHREWSBURY RIVER RACE

RED BANKS, N. J., Dec. 15.—Devotees of that soul stirring, thrilling and deliciously exciting sport, ice yachting, are now having their inning on the Shrewsbury river. The opening of the ice yachting season is the earliest in years. Usually it is well into January before the river at Shallow point is thick enough for racing. There are a number of new yachts to be put on the ice this season. Captain Henry H. Munro of New York has built a companion to the Princeton, which he has named Woodrow Wilson. The Wilson has been built especially for racing. Other crack boats that are now ready include the Shrewsbury, the Jack Frost, the Drub, the George, the Isabel, the Clare, the Eagle, the George H. the Hazel L., the Mildred, the Iola, the Minnie and Leroy. If the ice keeps solid many big races will be held within the next two weeks. On Dec. 19 several big yachts will race for the commodore's pennant. Afterward the board of trade cup will be the attraction. This cup is the finest of the many trophies, being valued at $100. Already it has been won twice by the South Shrewsbury club and once, last

HON. JOEL COOK NOT A CANDIDATE FOR SHEDD PARK

Philadelphia Congressman Dies of Apoplexy

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 15.—Congressman Cook of the second Pennsylvania district, comprising part of this city, died here today. Mr. Cook was stricken with apoplexy in Washington last Saturday and, failing to show any improvement, he was removed to his home here. Last summer Mr. Cook suffered a slight paralytic stroke, but recovered sufficiently to resume his congressional duties. He was 68 years old.

Representative Joel Cook is a republican of Philadelphia and was born in Philadelphia March 20, 1842. Edu-

Alderman-Elect Barrett States His Position

Alderman-elect Andrew E. Barrett is of the opinion that someone is trying to thrust greatness upon him by booming him as a candidate for chairman of the board of aldermen.

Mr. Barrett said to a reporter of The Sun this morning: "Kindly inform my friends that I am not a candidate for chairman of the board of aldermen. Messrs. Connors, Daly and Gallagher have had previous experience in the board, and the choice should lie between them. I have had no experience in that part of the government, and hence I am not seeking a position over men who have had the experience."

EXPORTS INCREASED WHILE IMPORTS DECREASED DURING NOVEMBER

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—There was an increase of $12,500,000 in exports and a decrease of $10,000,000 in imports during the month of November, compared with the corresponding period of last year, according to the bureau of statistics. The value of the imports for the month aggregated $130,361,553, against $140,365,773. Imports for the 11 months ending with November, 1910, aggregated $1,435,770,123 as against $1,356,776,460 for the corresponding period of last year, while the exports aggregated $1,636,990,585, as against $1,555,720,931 for the same period of 1909.

Two Million Gallons of Water for Rink

It will require 2,000,000 gallons of water to properly flood the skating rink at Shedd park. The rink, it was stated today, will be ready for the skaters by Saturday. The rink is being used at the present time, but only in patches.

It was at first believed that drag on the city water would be too great if the six-inch pipe that supplies the rink was to be left open all day, and the hours were fixed from 1 to 5 o'clock p.m. Yesterday, however, Supt. Thomas of the water department said he would let the pipe run all day until the rink has been well flooded.

MCKINLEY DAY

Mix-Up of Date of the President's Birthday

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—January 29 is known from one end of the United States to the other as McKinley day, but admirers of the martyred president throughout the country will be astonished to learn that January 29 is probably not President McKinley's birthday anniversary at all. It is true that in one of the congressional directories issued when Mr. McKinley was president the date of his birth was given as January 29, 1843. But in all the directories published during Mr. McKinley's six terms as a member of the house of representatives the date is given as February 26, 1844.

The sketch of Mr. McKinley's life which appears in the directory issued at the beginning of the first session of the forty-fifth congress Mr. McKinley wrote himself. There are two or three editions of the directory each session and before each edition was printed a proof of this sketch was sent to him for revision. He must have seen it dozens of times after he first wrote it and a man is usually supposed to know the date of his own birth.

It was commented upon yesterday by members of the Ohio delegation as very remarkable that the question has never been raised. Yet Senator Dick, Representative Ketter of Ohio, who says he talked birthdays and ages with President McKinley dozens of times; representatives Cassidy and Howland of Cleveland, and other members of the delegation seem to accept the date of February 26, 1844, as correct.

One thing is certain: The members of the Ohio delegation are sufficiently interested in the proposition to make a thorough inquiry. If McKinley day is really February 26 they don't want January 29 celebrated as such. The discrepancy was discovered by Representative James Burke of Pennsylvania, who had received an invitation to a McKinley day banquet, had lost the card and undertook to dig up the date in a congressional directory.

"BESS" IS DEAD

Celebrated St. Bernard Passed Away

"Bess," one of the best known dogs in Lowell has gone to the happy hunting ground. Bess was the property of Joseph Steinberg, the Middlesex street clothing dealer, and besides being a true comrade and friend, Bess worked her way along and "paid her keep." Her master used to put a rubber blanket on Bess and Bess would go out and make the rounds. There was an advertisement painted on the blanket and it was said that Bess would cover the whole city in a day. While at the store in Middlesex street Bess' watchfulness would have done credit to a man. If a suspicious looking character entered the store Bess would follow him until he had taken his departure. Mr. Steinberg thought so much of Bess that he has had life-sized pictures made of her which he is giving his friends as souvenirs.

Muldoon read a statement prepared by the decedent instead of delivering a eulogy. In the statement she wrote: "It is my will that my burying be as the burying of the poor. In this I wish to be identified with them, and as, in my life, I have failed to manifest the sympathies of my heart in their regard, in the first place through my own fault, ignorance and perverted judgment of things, and lastly for want of means and health, I, in this last act, would render a public reparation for

UNITED WORKERS

Military Fair at Universalist Church

The United Workers of the First Universalist church opened their annual military fair and entertainment at their church last night. The affair attracted a very large crowd and proved one of the most enjoyable social events of the season. Mrs. Bell Dunlap Tuttle had general supervision and she was assisted by many of the women of the church.

The entertainment was in charge of Mrs. Daiselle Dunlap Brown and Mrs. Arthur Gilbert. It consisted of a series of military tableaux, Arthur Colby, George Maguire, Harry Needham, Osmond D. Long and William Henderson taking the solos. A number of the young ladies assisted in the singing.

Earlier in the evening a turkey supper was served, during which music was provided by McElroy's orchestra. The supper was in charge of Mrs. William F. Lane, Mrs. Archie McLean and a full committee.

The different tables were presided over as follows: Fancy table, Mrs. L. A. Derby, chairman; gentlemen's table, Mrs. B. D. Tuttle's and Mrs. D. D. Brown's Sunday school classes; candy, Mrs. F. A. Bates, chairman; boys' table, Mrs. Drew; children's table, Mrs. Clarence Hemenway, chairman; apron table, Mrs. A. L. Hartford.

The fair will be brought to a close tonight, and a large attendance is expected, as the program will be of unusual excellence.

THE STATE ARMORY

Centre of Increased Military Interest Since Capt. Pearson's Appointment

The militia companies at the armory are all rejoicing over the honor that has come to Captain Pearson, in being appointed Adjutant General. Captain Pearson will retire from the company so that a new captain will be selected to fill the place. First Lieut. Peterson will probably be promoted to the captaincy while a successor will then be chosen for his place and also for that of Lieut. Burns recently resigned. It is quite probable that the armory during the coming year will be the scene of some brilliant social functions at which many of the high military dignitaries of the state will be present.

Adjutant Pearson will have certain office hours in Boston, but will attend to his law business in this city during certain hours of the day to be announced early in the year. The appointment of Captain Pearson has directed public interest to the armory and to the military companies in an extraordinary degree. For that reason a sketch of the armory and the work carried on there will be of general interest.

The armory and its companies. The state armory in Westford street was erected in 1889. It contains about 60 rooms, a mess hall and a spacious drill shed. From the outside the building looks like a prison with its barred windows, but the inside is more like a palace, because of the luxury and comfort that can be had within the walls of that splendid structure. Through the kindness of Capt. Walter H. Jones, the armorer, a representative of The Sun was ushered through every room and nook of the building, and much credit is due the armorer and the members of the different militia companies, for the neatness and appearance of every apartment.

The building is equipped with several shower baths, a mess room, where banquets are held frequently; two bowling alleys and the large drill shed, where dancing, basketball, indoor base ball, revolver and rifle practices are held during the winter months. The companies are planning to open soon a fully equipped gymnasium. The armory is the headquarters of four militia companies. Each of these is formed with 60 privates and three officers, namely: Co. C, 6th regiment, Capt. Gardner W. Pearson, 1st Lieut. George W. Peterson and 2nd Lieut. James Burns; Co. G, 6th regiment, Capt. Walter H. Jones, 1st Lieut. Thomas W. Doyle and 2nd Lieut. Fred A. Mottram; Co. K, 6th regiment, Capt. Jas. W. Greig, 1st Lieut. John P. Davis and 2nd Lieut. Harry McManis; Co. M, 6th regiment, Capt. Philip McNulty, 1st Lieut. Bernard McAdie and 2nd Lieut. Daniel Christian.

The drill nights are as follows: Tuesday, Co. M; Wednesday, Co. G; Thursday, Co. K; Friday, Co. C; Monday and Saturday.

Co. D of the Second Corps Cadets, that also had its headquarters in the Westford street armory, was transferred to Salem, Mass., some twelve years ago. Each company has a large reception room equipped with a piano, an amusement room, where all sorts of games are played, also an outdoor room, where all the men's equipments are neatly kept in such a way that they can be gotten in a minute's notice.

The companies are doing well financially, for every now and then socials and dances, basketball games and other entertainments are given before the public for the benefit of the organizing company. The 129 men who meet in the armory associate together and have the most friendly feelings for each other.

A series of sports will be entered this winter in athletic circles. At the present time Major Sweetser is organizing a league among Companies C and G of the 6th regiment of Lowell, A of Wakefield and H of Stoneham. The sports will include indoor baseball, basketball, bowling and revolver and rifle tournaments. Wall scaling is very popular among the members of Co. G, but it was abandoned three years ago for lack of interest in this military exercise on the part of the other companies. Co. G possesses many beautiful trophies won in wall scaling contests.

Co. C holds the record for trophies. It has over a score and one-half of rich prizes on exhibition in its rooms. The militiamen are very fond of music, and just for that Co. K has organized a six piece orchestra. W. S. Waller is the leader and he will undoubtedly give several concerts this winter.

Captain Jones was appointed armorer March 1st of the present year. His family occupies the upper floor of the building. He is capable and conscientious and does his work to the satisfaction of all.

Militiamen have access to the building from 8 a. m. to 11 p. m. Enlistments are taken in the militia from 18 to 45 years, and the applicant must be a citizen of the United States.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

What is expected to be the comedy hit of the present season in local dramatic offerings is Doherty-Collins & Co.'s production of "The Arrival of Kitty," which will be seen at the Opera House on Friday and Saturday, Dec. 16-17. The play is the latest product of the pen of the successful author, Norman Lee Swartout, and is conceded to be his best effort. It is a pure comedy and is said to sparkle with wit and abound in the most mirth provoking incidents and situations.

"THE YANKEE GIRL"

Blanche Ring is announced as the welcome attraction at the Lowell Opera House, Monday afternoon and evening, Dec. 26, when the merry singer of "Rings On My Fingers," "Yip-i-Addy," and countless other popular classics will be seen for the first time in Lowell in her new musical play, "The Yankee Girl." In this vehicle Miss Ring has just terminated an engagement at the Majestic theatre, Boston, and the piece also has to its credit a lengthy and prosperous run at the New York Herald Square theatre.

"The Yankee Girl" is the work of George V. Hobart and Silvio Hein, the former having contributed an amusing and interesting book and the latter a tuneful score. Mr. Hobart's story abounds in humorous situations furnishing Miss Ring with generous opportunities to display at their best all those delightful talents for fun making that have made her so immensely popular. Miss Ring's songs include "The Top of the Morning," "Love Among the Roses," "Come Josephine in My Flying Machine," "Nora Malone" and in response to an insistent demand she sings for an encore "Rings On My Fingers."

The supporting company is a distinguished one headed by Harry Gilfoil, and containing such favorites as William P. Carleton, Halliday and Curley, Marguerite Wright, Juliette Lunge, Margaret Malcolm, Paul Porter, Juan Villanova, Cyril Ring, Henry Bergman, Alfred DeBall and Fannie Kidston. There is a large and beautiful chorus of more than usual singing and dancing ability.

THEATRE VOYONS

Today affords the last chances to see the excellent bill shown at the Theatre Voyons, featuring "The Death of Admiral Coligny," an historical picture, but one so well played and dramatically written that it holds the attention every second. "In the Wilderness," a western pioneer story, is fine and a real laugh producing comedy, is a favorite with many. Tomorrow a biographical subject will be the feature and its splendid love story, told with exceptional art cannot fail to please. A strong dramatic story is told in "Her First Husband's Return," and the plot is a real novelty in many ways. Imagine the plight of a woman happily married to find her first husband, who she supposes dead, in her home endeavoring to rob the safe. The story is well carried out and right and virtue are rewarded in the end. The comedy is a real laugh.

Try ALLEOTONE for Your Cold, Sore Throat or Feverishness.

ALLEOTONE is made from exactly the same elements from which your body is made.

All the medicine you ever took was made largely from elements that are foreign to your body,—many of them poisonous to a greater or lesser degree. The principle of medication is usually to develop unnatural conditions of the body.

ALLEOTONE works on an absolutely different principle. It supplies the cells directly with those elements which they lack, and cures the diseased condition exactly as water cures thirst, (which is a disease.)

ALLEOTONE is a perfect remedy for Colds, Grippe, Tonsillitis, Fevers and all infectious conditions.

When the cells of your body are in normal condition, they resist the attack of disease germs. When the cells receive a deficient amount of their sustaining elements, the disease germs get a foothold and any kind of sickness is likely to result.

ALLEOTONE supplies directly to the cells the elements which they need, and from which they were originally made. It contains these elements and nothing else. It is absolutely harmless in any dosage and has no unfavorable reaction whatever.

Hundreds of physicians and hospitals are using ALLEOTONE more and more frequently, because there is nothing else which so effectively enables the body to resist or throw off germ infection.

We do not urge you to take Alleotone for serious ailments without doctor's advice. But we do urge you to take Alleotone for Cold, Grippe, Quinsy Sore Throat, Tonsillitis, Headaches and the Grippe-like aches which are so often the forerunners of serious diseases.

NEW GAME

WOMAN ROBBED OF $60 IN BOSTON

BOSTON, Dec. 15.—It cost Mrs. Mollie Libman, 62 years old, of 102 Salem street, $60 for her initiation into a new game of confidence yesterday afternoon. She was accosted by a man who wanted her to direct him to a tailor shop. At that point another man hurried by, dropping a purse, which Mrs. Libman's vis-a-vis picked up, opened and counted out $325.

Just then the other man came back and accused both Mrs. Libman and her companion of having stolen the purse. He searched the man and claimed not to find the purse. He then threatened to call a policeman if Mrs. Libman did not open her handbag and prove his purse wasn't in there.

Mrs. Libman complied, taking $60 of her own money from the bag. The men sprang at her, choked her, got the money and escaped.

CATHOLIC PASTOR GREETED REVEREND UNITARIAN CONFERENCE

One of the principal features of the 200th anniversary celebration yesterday of the First Unitarian church, Revere, was the reading of a letter of congratulation sent by the Rev. James Lee, pastor of the Roman Catholic church in Revere. The reading of the letter was greeted with applause at last night's exercises.

IN CHURCH VESTRIES

The Ladies' Foreign Missionary society of the First Congregational church met in the vestry of the church yesterday afternoon and listened to an interesting talk by Dr. Kyle, on missionary work in Brazil.

Kirk Street Church

The Woman's association of the Kirk Street church met in the church vestry yesterday afternoon. Miss Amy Rowland, the American representative of the International Institute for girls, in Madrid, gave an address on recent developments in the history of the first woman's college in Spain.

Grace Universalist Church

The Victrola recital given in the vestry of the Grace Universalist church last evening was well attended and much appreciated. It was given under the direction of A. L. Hiser of Steinert's music store.

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1909 was 16,828

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilote, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1910. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

THE LEBLANC CASE

There has been altogether too much gush over Hattie Leblanc, "the innocent child." If Mrs. Glover were on trial for murder, Hattie Leblanc would be painted as a fiend and Mrs. Glover as the wronged and persecuted wife. The jury in the Leblanc case must have felt put out on a great many occasions. District Attorney Higgins claimed that he was not fairly treated by the court or by the opposing counsel, but after the ruling out of Glover's dying statement he held his own at every point and made the most of a weak case.

Mrs. Glover will not be molested unless there be found some far more damaging evidence against her. All the evidence brought out during the trial served only to cause a doubt in the minds of the jury as to Hattie Leblanc's guilt. There would be fully as much doubt as to Mrs. Glover's guilt unless more evidence be discovered.

It is too bad that any innocent prisoner should suffer a year's imprisonment awaiting the leisure of the courts. Another phase of the case is, that it is very difficult to convict anybody for the murder of a man like Glover, especially when there is any provocation to be offered in the prisoner's behalf.

DEMOCRATS RESPONSIBLE FOR RESULTS

The results of Tuesday's election will give Mayor Meehan and the democratic board of aldermen to a great extent the control of next year's city government. That will place upon them the responsibility for results. They will be expected to give the citizens the best possible administration and that can be done only by conservative action, and devotion to the city's interests.

Mayor Meehan did not find his heaviest gains in democratic wards, which is but another proof of the same spirit that defeated Col. Carmichael as candidate for congress. It appears that there is a number of democrats who think they should be placed in positions by the mayor. Under the conditions prevailing at the present time, it is difficult for the mayor, if he were so disposed, to find places for a lot of men who depend on politics for a living. There are too many who imagine that the city owes them a livelihood. Some of them run for office, but when they find the people do not want them they had better go to work at some honest occupation.

Every democrat in Lowell should feel gratified that the two French candidates on the aldermanic ticket were elected by such handsome votes. In future this large element in our population should have a good representation in the board of aldermen. The republicans have not given it the recognition it deserves in the past and it is well that the democrats had the fairness to do so even at this late day. It may be that in the near future we shall have a new charter in which party designation will be dropped. Even then the French citizens must receive the recognition to which they are entitled in our city government. Where the interests of the entire city are to be conserved it is but reasonable that one of the most important and progressive elements of our population should be considered. We have learned a good political lesson from Tuesday's election.

EDUCATING PUBLIC OPINION FOR CIVIC BETTERMENT

In the city of Philadelphia has been started a movement for the education of public opinion on matters municipal. It is conducted by The City Club which holds weekly meetings for citizens generally. These meetings are addressed by able speakers on matters of general interest to the citizens. Some speakers deal with the work of city departments, showing what can be accomplished by following out a fixed plan from year to year, while others discuss various matters of public interest, showing what has been done in various lines of progress by other cities. Here too are shown what the people must do to ensure good government, the vigilance necessary to prevent corruption and the scrutiny of candidates for office in order to prevent bad men from being elected.

It is now a common expedient resorted to by candidates for office to assure the people that the present government officials are bad, that reform is necessary and that they, the men who make the charges, can accomplish all the needed reforms. These professional demagogues are being exposed by the City Club of Philadelphia so that the voters are not likely to be misled by any political mountebank that holds up with a new nostrum for the cure of municipal ills. Thus public sentiment is being enlightened, the voters are really being educated in the business of helping run a city and the result must ultimately be reflected in civic betterment. Philadelphia is thus setting a good example to other cities as she has set them a bad example in the past.

No such systematic work for moulding public opinion can be done, however, without a public hall in which to hold mass meetings of citizens. That is a prime consideration and it is one in which our own city of Lowell is lame. We have no public hall and for that reason we have very much fewer public meetings than we otherwise would have. This public need must be remedied as soon as possible. It is to be hoped that the city government of next year will get to work on this problem without delay and see that the public hall matter be held up no longer by the differences between the commission and the city council.

With a public hall the board of trade, or any other organization interested in the city's good, could conduct meetings for the formation of public opinion upon such important subjects as municipal economy, charter reform, uniform accounting, the centering of responsibility and the modes of enforcing the popular will. During the years since the last burning of Huntington hall the city has suffered very seriously for lack of a public hall, as a great many public meetings would have been held had that for lack of a hall were let go by default. With a public hall there would be no need of the mill-race and street corner rallies and these should then be prohibited in the interests of public order.

PEOPLE OF NOTE

Miss Harry Payne Whitney, known as one of America's most prominent amateur sculptors, is having built the most magnificent studio in the world on her estate at Westbury Hills, Long Island. It is a one and a half story structure of tile and marble and will cost about $100,000.

Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman and Charles M. Alexander, the well known evangelists, accompanied by a limited number of friends, will sail on a missionary tour to the Holy Land on March 11. Stops will be made at Madeira, Gibraltar, Algiers, Villefranche, Naples, Alexandria, Cairo, Damascus, Capernaum, Nazareth, Jericho and other cities.

Alfred Tennyson Dickens, son of the novelist, is to give lectures in this country, as he is now doing in England. He is a farmer in Australia, and has been prosperous. Another of the novelist's sons was named after Henry Fielding.

Wood Norton, the Worcestershire home of the Duc d'Orleans, where King Manuel has been celebrating his twenty-first birthday, is in external appearance like more than the average English manor house, but the stamp of royalty is over it all, says the Westminster Gazette. And the fleur-de-lis is no mere ornamental symbol, for at Wood Norton "Philippe VIII" of France keeps royal state and holds his court. He has his retinue of "gentlemen of honor," representatives of some of the oldest families of the French noblesse, under the direction of the Duc de Lamoignon; and his duchess has her dames d'honneur of equally royal lineage. And in this environment of state and courtly ceremonial "King Philippe" exacts and receives the homage due to a sovereign.

John W. Thomas, a Hutchinson, Kansas, negro farmer, recently bought two farms in his section, one for $10,000 and one for $15,000. Thirty years ago Thomas went to Kansas without a cent. By hard work he has amassed not less than $50,000, and he has copied the affluent white farmers of his state by living comfortably and riding in an automobile. He stays in the cities for a year or so after reaching Kansas and made only a precarious living at odd jobs.

Professor Arthur H. Blanchard of the department of civil engineering of Brown university, has been appointed expert and consulting engineer to the United States office of public roads, by the secretary of agriculture and the director of the office of public roads. Professor Blanchard has been requested by the director, Mr. Logan Walker Page, to serve as consulting engineer on the design, construction, and maintenance of a series of experimental sections of bituminous surfaces and bituminous pavements to be built for the borough of Queens in the city of New York.

At the annual doll show given by the Y. W. C. A. of Oxford college in Oxford, O., the prize for the neatest work and most stylish costume was won by Miss Charlotte Parks of Boston, who is the resident nurse in the college. Most of the faculty and student body entered the competition. More than 100 dolls were on exhibition.

The number of members enrolled in the national college fraternities in a quarter of a century has risen from 72,000 to almost 270,000 of whom 30,000 are women. The undergraduate membership in a normal year now ranges between 30,000 and 45,000 and of these more than 1700 chapters of these societies, 1100 own or rent houses, which at a conservative estimate are valued at more than $6,000,000.

A Pyron chair of English literature has been inaugurated at Nottingham university college, Nottingham, Eng. It was made the occasion of a notable gathering, presided over by the duke of Portland. The American ambassador to Great Britain, Whitelaw Reid, delivered the principal address.

Delegates representing 17,000 school teachers from all over New York state have formed a federation of teachers' associations. The chief object of the federation is to secure united action by the teachers of the state in regard to legislative matters affecting teachers. It is expected that one of the first things that the federation will seek will be the enactment of a law to grant a state pension to aged teachers.

ATTACK COMING

Government to Go After

Electrical Trust

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The government's attack on the so-called electrical trust will begin before New Year's day, unless present plans are changed.

On a certain date, being kept secret, between now and the beginning of 1911, a bill in equity against one section of the combine will be filed in some United States court east of the Mississippi river.

Then will begin what the department of justice considers the mammoth task of testing suit of its history and one which involves a test of the Sherman law never brought before. The government's case will depend largely upon the interpretation of the patent laws.

One of the government's prosecutors declares that when the action is instituted it will be recognized as far reaching the Standard Oil case in magnitude and public importance, and one conservative estimate is that it will cost the government no less than $1,000,000 to prosecute to the end.

The investigation is not completed,

but it has disclosed an object of attack of such proportions that the department of justice has abandoned any idea of attacking the combine as a whole and intends to fight the so-called trusts in sections.

The bill soon to be filed will be against one of the 18 or 20 divisions of the alleged combine which investigators of the department of justice report having found doing business under a general head.

TRAFFIC REGULATIONS

Discussed by Directors of the Board of Trade

Large Increase in Membership of the Board Reported — Three New Directors Chosen—A Big Meeting Will be Held in January

Street traffic regulations were the chief topic discussed at the meeting of the directors of the board of trade yesterday afternoon. The report of the committee that studied the question of the committee was greatly impressed with the system in force in Springfield. The report was discussed by the directors and finally it was decided to present it to the next city government as an amendment to the existing ordinance. The new plan includes the 20-minute rule as the limit for allowing vehicles to stand in Central street from Warren street to Merrimack street and the entire stretch of Merrimack street and beyond from Kirk street to the Concord river, Middle street and Prescott streets.

The complete report is as follows:

Section 4. Turning and starting: The driver or person having charge of any vehicle, before turning the corner of any street or turning out or starting from or stopping at the curb line of any street, shall first see that there is sufficient space free from other vehicles, so that such turn, stop or start may be safely made, and shall then give a plainly visible or audible signal.

Section 5. Turning to the right into another street: A vehicle turning to the right into another street shall turn the corner as near to the right curb as practicable.

Section 6. Turning to the left into another street: A vehicle turning to the left into another street shall pass to the right of and beyond the center of the street intersection before turning.

Section 7. Crossing streets: A vehicle crossing from one side of the street to the other within the limits of the business district, shall do so by turning to the left so as to head in the same direction as the traffic on that side of the street.

Section 8. Stopping at the curb: No vehicle shall stop in the business section with its left side to the curb.

Section 9. In no case shall a vehicle remain backed up to the curb, excepting when actually loading or unloading.

Section 10. Stopping close to curb line: Unless in an emergency or to allow another vehicle or pedestrian to cross its path, or on the order of a police officer, no vehicle shall stop in any public street or highway of this city, except close to the curb line.

Section 11. Stopping near corners: No vehicle shall stop or stand within the intersection of any streets.

Section 12. Signal in slowing up or stopping: In slowing up or stopping, a signal shall always be given to those behind by raising the whip or hand vertically.

Section 13. Slowly moving vehicles: Vehicles moving slowly shall keep as close as possible to the curb line on the right, so as to allow faster moving vehicles free passage on the left.

Section 14. Exceptions: Nothing in these rules shall apply to the apparatus and wagons of the fire and police departments, ambulances, emergency repair wagons of street railroads, and vehicles carrying the United States mail.

Section 15. No vehicle other than those excepted by section 14, shall stay standing for a longer consecutive period than 20 minutes on that part of Merrimack street, Merrimack square, and East Merrimack streets between Kirk street and the Concord river, nor on Central street, between Merrimack and Warren streets nor on Prescott street. No vehicles, other than those owned by business concerns of the street, shall remain standing on Middle street for a longer consecutive period than 20 minutes, unless such vehicle is taking on or discharging a load.

ARTICLE II.

Use of Sidewalks
Section 1.—Driving on sidewalks: No horse, wheelbarrow or other vehicle shall be driven, backed, led or allowed to stand on any sidewalk, except that wares or merchandise in process of loading and unloading, shipment, or being received from shipment, may be transferred from trucks or other vehicles over the sidewalk, by the use of skids, provided a passageway be kept open within the stock line of buildings for the free passage of pedestrians.

Section 2.—Driving across sidewalks: Nothing contained in this article shall prevent the riding or driving of horses or vehicles from private property directly across the sidewalks of any street to the roadway, or from the roadway back to such private property.

ARTICLE III.

Powers of Police Department
Section 1.—Police Department to regulate traffic:

The police department shall have all powers and duties in relation to the management of vehicular traffic. The driver or person having charge of any vehicle shall stop whenever ordered to do so by a police officer, and shall not proceed until he receives a signal so to do from such police officer. The signal to stop may be given by raising the hand vertically.

Section 2.—Police department to see that rules are posted: The police department shall see that these rules are posted in all public stables and garages, and shall keep copies of them and issue them on application.

Section 3.—The board of police of the city of Lowell shall from time to time establish and publish those streets that shall constitute business section as referred to in these regulations.

ARTICLE IV.

Penalties For Violations
Section 1.—Penalties for violations: Any person violating any of the provisions of the foregoing sections shall be liable to a penalty of not less than one dollar or more than ten dollars for each offense.

ARTICLE V.

Section 1.—All orders and rules inconsistent herewith are hereby rescinded and annulled.

The committee on membership reported a gain of 125 members since the last year. It was voted to elect three new directors and Walter E. Guyette, Dr. G. M. Randall and Frank P. Cheney were chosen to the places. It was decided to appoint a committee on advertising and year book. The following applicants were admitted to membership: F. E. Johnson, W. M. Lovelock, Alfred LeBlanc, C. M. Morin, David S. Gerow, Fred S. Burnham, Omond Long, William F. Dean, J. J. McClure, John J. Brady, Charles F. Young, N. D. Spyropoulos, B. N. Roy-balds, Francis H. Mitchell, George B. Coburn.

The January meeting, which will be held on the second Wednesday will be a sort of jubilee gathering. It will be an open meeting and several local speakers will deliver addresses. This year will be completed with the organization in fine standing. Every bill has been paid and there is a balance of $150 in the treasury.

At the meeting yesterday Frank P. Cheney gave a report of the business transacted at the recent meeting of the New England Business Men's association held in Boston.

WAR DEPARTMENT

Sent Sensational Secret Report to Congress

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—A sensational report from the war department, showing how the country was inadequately protected against invasion from foreign governments, was sent to the house yesterday as a secret document and after a number of conferences and hurried telephone messages, was returned to the war department on the ground that the house could not receive a secret report.

Members of congress who saw the documents before its withdrawal say the report of Secretary Dickinson points out that the country is wholly unprepared, that there is a fearful inadequacy of men, of guns and of ammunition, that the army should be reorganized, and that a council of national defense, with the secretary of war at its head, should be created by congress.

General Wood, testifying before the house military committee yesterday, furnished some of the most interesting information ever given that body. He discussed the whole subject of national defense, told where the weak points lay, and laid particular emphasis on the possibility of attack from the Orient. He did not give vent to any alarmist views as to danger of any immediate invasion, but talked confidently of the needs of congress, as a prudent and effective act, to take immediate action to guard against any possible trouble from Japan or China.

Representative McClachlan of California, the author of the resolution, which brought about the official exposition of the weakness of the military defenses, said yesterday:

"A foreign country could land 200,000 troops on the Pacific coast in 30 days and the only intimation of trouble would be their blowing up of the mountain passes thus preventing any communication with the east. The best military authorities say that it would take years to dislodge foreign troops if they ever secured a foothold under these conditions and that it would cost the United States a billion dollars."

A bill introduced yesterday by Representative Hobson embodies the administration idea of a national council of defense and is the result of his conference with President Taft, Secretary Dickinson and other officials.

GEORGE N. BROWN ANNUAL MEETING

Champion Pedestrian Of Les Artisans' Officers Visits This City at Willimantic

George N. Brown, who claims the world's championship as a heel and toe walker, was in town today and is a more than usually interesting fellow. He is 19 years old and comes from Auburn, N. Y., and is getting himself into shape for a long distance cross country trip from New York to Chicago next season for a $2000 prize. He makes it. For his exhibition he uses a patent tread mill arrangement, which gives his audience a chance to see him cover a mile, which he does in about seven minutes.

He won the championship at Peterboro, Canada, last May, by walking 127 miles in 19 hours. It was a six day affair with all the leading walkers of the country entered. The contestants walked 2 1/2 hours the first five nights and 7 1/2 on the final night and Brown came under the wire a winner although up against the best men in that line of sport. While giving his exhibition at a theatre he wears a sweater presented for winning the world's championship.

He claims the championship from one mile to 100 and points to his various contests as proof of his ability to make good at his chosen athletic event.

Mr. Brown's specialty is indoor walking and he challenges the world from one to 100 miles. He was reminded that this is Dan O'Leary's town and he replied that he would give Dan a go for 100 miles. He will walk seven miles against a runner's 10.

"BIG BILL"

KELHER WILL BE SENTENCED ON TUESDAY

BOSTON, Dec. 15.—William J. Kelher, who was convicted of aiding and abetting George W. Coleman of misapplication of the funds of the National City bank of Cambridge, will be sentenced by Judge Hale in the United States circuit court, Tuesday, Dec. 20. This became known yesterday following the discussion of the bill of exceptions of Kelher by Harvey H. Pratt of his counsel, Judge Hale and United States District Attorney French and Assistant United States District Attorney Garland.

Next Tuesday the court will affix its signature to a bill of exceptions to be re-drafted from the present bill. It has been agreed by counsel for the defense to omit from the re-drafted bill all the evidence contradictory to what Coleman testified to at Kelher's trial.

"Big Bill" Kelher is now out on $25,000 bail. After being sentenced he will not be incarcerated, but will await the decision of the court of appeals, which will decide whether or not he will be granted a new trial.

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER
Absolutely smokeless and odorless

There are a great many places and occasions when the possibility of getting extra heat immediately effects an economy by decreasing the discomfort of the worker. In the office, in the early morning or late at night, before or after the steamheat is on, it is of importance to have extra heat. In the builder's outside office, in the shipping loft, in the checker's shack, on exposed lofts, in railroad stations, in studios, the

It is often a necessity. It is safe, smokeless and odorless. Apply a match, and it gives heat quickly. With four quarts of oil it burns nine hours. Has automatic-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that the wick can be cleaned in an instant.

It has a cool handle and a damper top. An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for reworking.

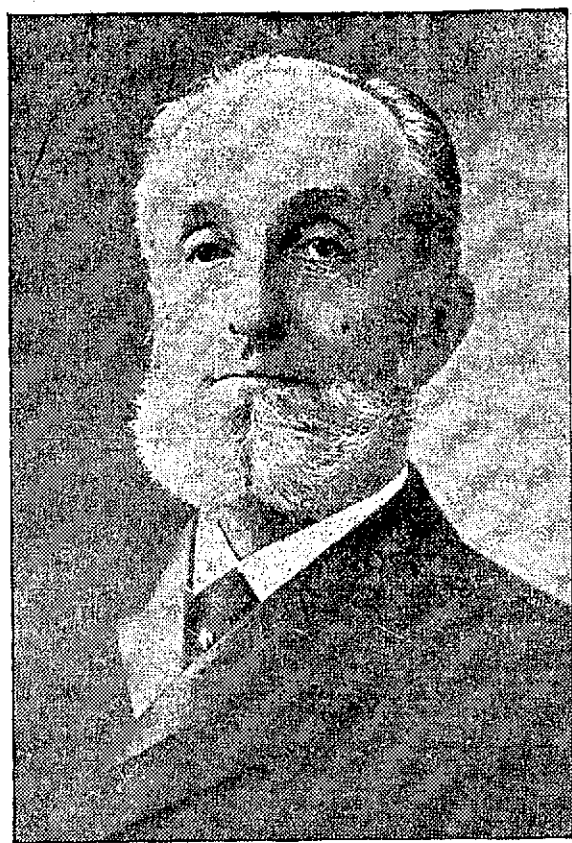

The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in Japan or nickel. It is strong, durable, well made, built for service, yet light and ornamental.

Chester G tryer.

Of the standing committee there were present: Samuel Hauser, George H. Graves, Oscar F. Allen, and Henry M. Nourse.

The permanent members in attendance were Most Worshipful Samuel C. Lawrence, Edwin B. Holmes, Charles T. Gallagher and J. Albert Blake TGD, Rt. Worshipful S. Lottrop Thorndike, Henry A. Belcher, Charles M. Green, William H. Emerson, Albert L. Harwood, Everett C. Benton, Louis C. Southard, William H. L. Odell and J. Gilman Walte, PDGM; Rt. Worshipful George H. Rhoades, David T. Marion, H. C. Jordan, Alvaro A. Osgood and Forrest E. Barker.

The grand master's address referred to the prosperous condition of the craft giving allegiance to the grand lodge, the membership now being nearly 59,000, distributed among 241 lodges, three of which are in Chile and three in China. There had been a large net increase in enrollment despite the fact that more than 900 had died. He alluded to the visitations he had paid to lodges, and the laying of corner stones for new halls devoted to the uses of the fraternity. A dispensation had been issued for a new lodge in Malden. The effort for a Masonic home had been productive of good results. There had been raised and paid in for the home $127,000, as shown by the board of trustees having in charge that project, and it was the first report since the organization less than a year ago. In addition there is in sight $40,000 resources. The receipts within the last month have been large and many lodges that have contributed are still engaged in securing funds.

Two amendments to the constitution were adopted and one affecting miscellaneous regulations is to the effect that the grand master, for the time being, should be the president of the trustees of the Masonic education and charity trust.

The result of the election was as follows: Dana J. Flanders of Malden, MWGM; Samuel Hauser of Boston, RWGGW; James L. Sherman of New Bedford, RWJGW; Charles H. Ramsay of Weymouth, RWGT; Thomas W. Davis of Belmont, RWGG; Most Worshipful J. Albert Blake of Malden, trustee of the Masonic education and charity trust for eight years from Jan. 1, 1911; Right Worshipful Melvin M. HOW JUSTICE IS DISPENSED IN BARRE, ME.

BARRE, Dec. 15.—Before Trial Justice Mathew Walker, yesterday morning, Francke Dielco of South Berre was fined $25, which he paid, and Salvatore Delebero, also of South Berre, was ordered to leave Barre within 24 hours, which order Deputy Sheriff D. H. Rice will see is enforced. Because of trouble over a game of cards at South Berre, the two men met on the street of South Berre, Monday morning, and Francke Dielco fired a revolver, he claims into the air. Delebero claims he has a wound on the side of his head where the bullet plowed up the flesh on his head. Dr. Walter S. Bates testified yesterday that he did not think the wound on Delebero's head was that of a bullet wound.

DIVORCED WIFE OF "JACK" CUD-
ANY PROVIDED FOR IN WILL.
CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—Mrs. Edwina Cowan Cudahy, divorced wife of "Jack" Cudahy of Kansas City, is here to learn what provisions were made for her and her four children in the will of her father-in-law, the late Michael Cudahy, whose wealth has been estimated at $20,000,000. Under an arrangement made before his death, Mr. Cudahy provided that a fund of $100,000 be held in trust for his four grandchildren, and the daughter-in-law was given an annuity of $5000. Mrs. Cudahy refused to discuss the will at her apartments. Neither would she make any statement as to the "past, present or future," as she put it.

NO DRUNK CASES TOURISTS ROBBED

At Today's Session of Police Court

There was not a drunk in police court this morning; one man was arrested for drunkenness yesterday but as it was his first offense, he was released this morning by the probation officer.

Larceny Charged

Edward F. Reardon, charged with the larceny of $40 from the Home Coal Co., pleaded not guilty to the complaint and at the request of his attorney the case was continued until Monday. The government claims that some time ago Reardon went to the Home Coal Co.'s office and ordered two tons of coal. He presented a check to the amount of $50 signed, Edward E. Brady and drawn on the Lowell Trust Co. The clerk telephoned to the bank and was informed that Mr. Brady had an account there. The check was accepted and $40 was returned to Reardon as the coal cost $16. The check was later cashed and an unsuccessful attempt was made to deliver the coal, for Reardon had given a wrong address. The defendant was found later at his home in large street and arrested for larceny.

Sold Oleomargarine

T. C. Mooney was found guilty of selling oleomargarine for straight butter and was fined $50. Another complaint charging him with selling without a license was placed on file. Mooney appealed on the first complaint.

RACE WITH SHARKS

HALF STARVED SEAMAN SWAM ASHORE

VICTORIA, B. C., Dec. 15.—After drifting six days without food on a derelict, Theodore Anderson swam to shore on the west coast of Australia. He told a thrilling story of the disaster that had brought death to every other member of the crew. News of the tragedy was brought here last night by the steamer Mouna from Brisbane. The derelict was a pearling lugger of 220 tons, the Hugh Norman. She was sailing down the coast from Broom reef. The dingy was launched and all members of the crew except Anderson and the captain boarded her. The little boat drifted away and was swamped. All her occupants were drowned. The captain ordered Anderson to jump in after the dingy but, seeing three sharks cruising in the vicinity, he refused. Later the lugger drifted off the reef and the captain leaped overboard and tried to swim ashore but he was attacked and eaten by sharks. Next day Anderson decided to risk all in an effort to reach land. It took him one hour to swim ashore and he was pursued by sharks but escaped them.

INVESTMENT CO.

RAIDED BY SECRET SERVICE OFFICERS TODAY

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—United States secret service officials today raided the offices of the Capital Investment Co. The main office and four of its branches were visited and papers and records confiscated. Sidney McElie is said by federal officers to be chief owner of the company. He is believed to be in Florida.

BODY IDENTIFIED

PROVIDENCE SUICIDE AN ALLSTON RESIDENT

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Dec. 15.—The body of the man who committed suicide here Tuesday night was identified today as that of William Bradshaw, 63 Brighton avenue, Allston, Mass. A card was found on the man's person bearing his name and address today, and the Boston police identified the body by the description given over the telephone. His daughter will come here today to claim the body.

By Bedouin Rebels Near Jerusalem

JERUSALEM, Dec. 15.—Reports from the Syrian vilayets where Bedouin revolts have recently been reported indicate that the uprising is a serious one. Many Turkish officials have been massacred and at several military posts the troops were annihilated.

An Englishman, who was an eye witness of some of the scenes of the uprising brings a detailed account to this city. Several companies of troops, he says, had been sent out with field guns to effect the disarmament of the Bedouins. The troops were scattered in small companies among the various tribes in the district east of the Jordan when the revolt broke out.

The revolt was carefully planned and executed. The Bedouins were led by Chief Mejlila of El Kerak, whose father was a desert chief of international prominence.

The Bedouins, objecting to the disarmament program, planned an armed resistance and attacked the troops simultaneously at all the stations north of Mejlila.

They were successful at every point, completely annihilating the troops, capturing sixteen field guns and killing many of the Turkish railway employees. The victorious force then marched on El Kerak. Here, too, they were successful. They massacred the government officials and their families, looted and burned the government buildings and schools and robbed a party of eight American tourists.

The latter suffered no personal injury, however. It is asserted that the Christian residents and their buildings were spared. The garrison of El Kerak, consisting of a full battalion of infantry, is blockaded in the castle, awaiting relief from Damascus.

GET MORE PAY

Lynn Express Drivers' Demand is Granted

LYNN, Dec. 15.—After an agreement for one year by which all their demands were granted, which was signed today, the teamsters employed by six Lynn express companies accepted a compromise proposition which on the whole was for less wages than the agreement called for. The teamsters union put in a demand several weeks ago under which, among other things, a weekly wage increase of $1.50 was requested for drivers of single and double hitches and for helpers. The time for signing the demand expired today and the companies accepted the new agreement. Then the teamsters compromised and the drivers of double hitches and the helpers expressed their willingness to accept an increase of $1 a week instead of the $1.50 allowed them under the agreement. The drivers of single hitches, however, will receive the $1.50 increase.

AT ARMORY CLUB

LANGFORD AND JEANNETTE WILL MEET

BOSTON, Dec. 15.—The effort of Dan McKettrick, manager of Joe Jeannette, to have Jeannette's bout with Sam Langford take place in Paris instead of at the Armory A. A. is likely to fail. Joe Woodman, manager of Langford, told the club officials yesterday that if Jeannette does not box Langford at the Armory A. A. he will not box him in Paris.

McKettrick and Jeannette have been used pretty well by the Armory A. A. which club feels that they are now showing ingratitude by trying to switch the match abroad after the A. A. has been in a lot of expense on account of the "stalling" of Jeannette and his manager.

FRANK B. TRULL

To Build New Residence on Andover Street

Frank B. Trull, whose home was destroyed by fire several weeks ago, has been granted a permit to build a new residence in Andover street, beyond the Clark road. The building will contain nine living rooms, pantries and bath rooms. It will be 39 by 45 feet, two and one-half stories. The estimated cost is $7000.

William J. Gilmore has been granted a permit to convert the rear of the 50 Royal street into a cottage house of six rooms. The estimated cost of the change is $700.

AMBASSADOR

DENIES STORIES OF SLAUGHTER OF PRISONERS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The reports from the scene of revolts in the province of Chihuahua, Mexico, to the effect that General Navarro, the commander of the government forces, had given orders that no prisoners were to be taken, has aroused the indignation of Senator De la Barra, the Mexican ambassador. He declared today that the statements that the government troops were ruthlessly bayoneting all captives were absolutely untrue.

"I cannot too emphatically deny the accuracy of those statements," he said. "The source from which they come should be very properly cast suspicion upon them. It is quite plain that they are put out by the rebels in a last desperate effort to excite sympathy on the part of the American people. They have lost in battle, are unable to longer conceal the falsity of their statements as to fictitious victories which they have been uttering, and are now driven to this last expedient, which I am sure will not avail them when the American people consider the source of the alleged news."

"FAKE" PROMOTER

ACCORDING TO THE POLICE IS UNDER ARREST

NEW HAVEN, Dec. 15.—George Hutchinson, alias Hatch, who it was charged, was obtaining money under false pretenses by offering positions as managers of the various branches of a chain of 25 cent stores he proposed to establish to anyone who would furnish the bond he required, and whose arrest occurred yesterday afternoon, was arraigned in court today, but was granted a continuance of his case until Saturday morning. He did not furnish the bond of $500 set by the court and was locked up according to the police Hutchinson represented himself to be general manager of a recently formed New York corporation by the name of Floyd's 25 cent stores and had a number of printed circulars bearing the letterhead of the company and the address, 124 Broadway, New York.

Hutchinson said to have told the police that he was formerly employed as an agent by the chamber of commerce of Boston and later by an insurance company of Boston. When searched at police headquarters a traveling card of the Masons was found on him and when questioned he said that he was an organizer for them and had recently formed a lodge in Norwich. He claims residence in Randolph, where, he says, he has a wife.

YOUTH USED REVOLVER IN A QUARREL

BROOKTON, Dec. 15.—George Arthur Lockwood, 18, of East Bridgewater, formerly of Newport, N. H., was held for the grand jury in $3000 in police court today on a charge of assault with intent to murder John T. Adams, 18, of East Bridgewater, at East Bridgewater last night. Adams was shot through the left shoulder, a bullet from a .22 calibre revolver narrowly missing the jugular vein. He was able to appear in court. The shooting followed a quarrel in which Adams knocked Lockwood down with his fist. It was testified Adams was running away from Lockwood when shot.

COL. ROOSEVELT

ADVISES HARVARD STUDENTS TO ENTER POLITICS

CAMBRIDGE, Dec. 15.—Seven hundred Harvard students today listened to an address given by Col. Theodore Roosevelt to the members of the "governmental class." The colonel advised all of the members of the class to go into politics after they are graduated. He said that the training they were receiving at Harvard would eminently fit them for political work. Colonel Roosevelt described his political policies.

He denounced the method of making nominations for political offices by which men who have had no previous experience in public office are given the preference because they have made no enemies.

Christmas Gifts

George H. Wood has bought the entire stock of the Grant Jewelry company, and has held a special sale on the stock for the past few weeks, during which time he has managed to do away with considerable of the old stock. Although the demand made during the sale by the public on account of the extremely low prices was large, the cream of the stock has not materially decreased, with the result that most the several hundred pieces which would make acceptable Christmas gifts can still be found in the stock, and can be purchased at a low figure. Additional to this, Mr. Wood has secured several new shipments of stock which he has arranged in the store formerly occupied by the Grant Co., and those thinking of giving gifts in the holiday season will find this store to have just what they had in mind. While you should pay a visit to the Merrimack street store do not fail to visit the Central street establishment, for here, in the largest jewelry store in the city, he has several thousand articles which would make ideal and proper gifts.

Mr. Wood, unlike the other dealers in this city, will sell you things at wholesale as well as retail prices.

Thinking of what to give is found by many to be the hardest feature of gift giving. For the purpose of assisting those contemplating gift giving we mention the following articles: Diamonds, gold and silver watches for ladies and gents, manure and toilet sets, silver tea sets, comb and brush sets, rings, lockets, bracelets, umbrellas and several hundred other things too numerous to mention. When quality is considered you will find that those articles sold in the Wood establishments are those governed by the guarantee that holds.

EXTRA

ALL CITY LABORERS

Are Now Under the Civil Service Laws

It was stated at city hall today that the street laborers were now under the civil service. The statement was based on the fact that public service in all cities with more than 100,000 inhabitants comes under the civil service and it was further stated that the Lowell case at the present time. This will affect all city laborers. The law in the matter is contained in section 36 of chapter 19 of the revised laws and reads as follows:

This chapter shall be in force in any town of more than twelve thousand inhabitants when accepted by it. So much of this chapter and the rules established under it as relate to the employment of laborers, designated as the "Labor Service" shall not be enforced in any city of less than one hundred thousand inhabitants unless the city council with the approval of the mayor, accepts the same. Foremen of the street and other departments of the city are already under the civil service.

COALITION MAJORITY 92

With Only Sixty-Four More Seats to be Filled

LONDON, Dec. 15.—Only 64 seats in the new parliament remain to be filled and the coalition parties already have a majority of 92, although the unionists as a homogeneous party will have the largest membership, with a total of 257 members elected to date.

The supporters of the government are made up as follows: Liberals, 238; Irish nationalists 64; independent nationalists 9; labor members 40; an aggregate of 440. The laborites have held their own and thus far have secured the same number of seats that they held in the last parliament.

Two liberal gains and one unionist gain in the returns made known today give the liberals a net gain of a single seat in 606 constituencies now polled.

The Darford division of Kent and Kirkcubrightshire returned to their old faith of liberalism while the unionists turned out the liberal member, H. C. P. Buttrill, for the Tavistock division of Devonshire, electing J. W. Spear.

The final pollings in England will be held on Saturday. A few Irish and Scotch constituencies will vote on Monday and these returns will complete the election.

The returns in detail follow: Cambridgehire (Wilsch) — N. Primrose, liberal, majority 54.

Sussex (Eastbourne) — R. S. Ganne, unionist, majority 1363.

Edinburghshire (Midlothian) — Master of Ellbank, liberal, majority 3153. The master of Ellbank is Alexander William Charles Oliphant, Suffolk (Eye) — W. H. Pearson, liberal, majority 790.

Somerset (north) — J. King, liberal, majority 921.

Artrim (north) — P. Kerr-Simley, unionist, majority 938.

Somerset (south) — Sir E. Strachey, liberal, majority 467.

Kirkcubrightshire — Major McLickling, liberal, majority 192. This is a liberal gain over last January's elections.

Wexford county (south) — P. French, nationalist, majority 2414.

Yorkshire (east riding, Holderness) — A. S. Wilson, unionist, majority 331.

Gloucestershire (Stroud) — C. P. Allan, liberal, majority 202.

Kent (Dartford) — J. Rowlands, liberal, majority 234. This is a liberal gain over the elections of January.

Norfolk (east) — Sir R. J. Price, liberal, majority 1406.

Warwickshire (Nuneaton) — W. Johnson, laborite, majority 608.

Cheshire (Hyde) — F. P. Nielsen, liberal, majority 294.

Derbyshire (Chesterfield) — J. Hasson, laborite, majority 228.

Hampshire (Isle of Wight) — D. B. Hall, unionist, majority 223.

Cheshire (Edisbury) — H. Barnston, unionist, majority 269.

Tyrone (north) — R. Barry, liberal, majority 132.

Devonshire (Tavistock) — J. W. Spear, unionist, majority 290. This is a unionist gain.

Cathnesshire — R. L. Harmsworth, liberal, majority 2631.

THE POLICE BOARD STRIKER KILLED

Asks Opinion on Newsboys' Licenses

At a special meeting of the police board held today it was voted to send the following request to the city solicitor for an opinion.

December 15, 1910.
William W. Duncan, Esq., City Solicitor,
Lowell, Mass.

Dear Sir: Chapter 119 of the Acts and Resolves of 1910, amending section 17, chapter 61 of the Revised Laws of our commonwealth, provides for the licensing of minors to engage in certain occupations in cities.

The school board of our city has licensed minors under the age of fourteen years, as allowed in the above mentioned section, for the sale of newspapers, and although the section apparently places the licensing of minors over fourteen years of age in the hands of the mayor and aldermen, the board of police requests your opinion as to whether that authority comes within its jurisdiction.

Very respectfully,
The Board of Police of the City of Lowell.

John J. Flaherty, Clerk.

PULLMAN MEN

Champion Tip Artists Want More Money

CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—Pullman porters have sent a petition to the general manager of the Pullman company asking for an increase in wages. The petition says:
"The growing tendency of the traveling public either to discontinue altogether or to reduce to one-half or less the gratuities with which they formerly rewarded Pullman porters who merited such consideration and the high cost of living generally have forced us to come through you to the Pullman company begging for some relief."
A porter on one of the New York-Chicago lines relating some of the hardships encountered told an incident which happened a couple of weeks ago on his train.

"The professor of the agricultural department in a certain university," said the porter, "brought 20 of his students to see the international stock show in Chicago. The professor told the students it was against the law of the state to give a tip. They traveled in my Pullman car. I worked all night scrubbing off the mud and polishing up the thirty pairs of shoes. In the morning the whole crew of them departed. Did I get anything for my polish and time? No such."

DEFENDANT WINS

In the Case of Gately, Tr., vs. Kappler

Judge Harris, in the superior court, has rendered a verdict for the defendant in the case of Robert F. Gately, trustee vs. Sarah Kappler, on the report of Judge Fisher who, as master, heard the facts in the case.

Messrs. Parley and Tierney appeared for the defendant and the plaintiff was represented by James P. Owens.

In this case the trustee in bankruptcy sued to compel Mrs. Kappler to transfer to him certain property said to be valued at about $12,000 which he had conveyed to her about nine months before he was adjudged bankrupt.

Judge Harris' finding in the case is as follows:

Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Middlesex ss.

Lowell, November Sitting, 1910. Gately Tr. vs. Kappler.

Memorandum.

Upon the facts found and reported by the master, I find, and rule, that there was good consideration for the conveyances to the defendant.

I also find and rule that the defendant had an equitable interest in the property conveyed.

I also find, and rule, that the interest of the bankrupt in said property was an undivided but uncertain interest, not representing any ascertainable, ascertainable or definite proportion of the whole.

Upon the facts found and reported by the master I find that there was no intent on the part of the defendant to defraud, hinder or delay future creditors of the bankrupt, and no intention on the part of the bankrupt to defraud his existing creditors, and that they were not in fact defrauded, hindered or delayed.

Defendant's objections to the report of the master numbered 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 10, 11, are sustained. Objections numbered 5, 7, 8, 9, are overruled as being based wholly or in part upon evidence not reported. Plaintiff is not entitled to the conveyances and releases prayed for and judgment upon conveyances and assignments by her of said property as her own should be dissolved. Let a decree be framed in accordance with above findings and rulings.

Robert O. Harris,

Justice Superior Court.

Wm. C. Dillingham, Asst. Clerk.

SUPERIOR COURT

Tedious Case of Smith vs. Cowley Given to Jury

The case of Smith vs. Cowley, which has been on trial in the superior court for several days, went to the jury this morning. The judge's charge occupied less than half an hour. The case is brought to recover a sum amounting to about $1600, which the plaintiff, Miss Smith, claims is due her from the estate of the late Charles Cowley for services rendered. She maintains that he engaged her to do typewriting and that she was to receive the sum of $400 per annum. She says that this money was not paid her and, therefore, she entered suit. The defense was a general denial that any contract or agreement had been entered into. Many witnesses, including handwriting experts, were called by each side.

TWELVE ENTOMBED

In Mine Fire at Layden, Colo.--- Fire Started Last Night

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 15.—Twelve men are reported entombed in shaft 12 of the Layden Coal Co. at Layden, Col., 14 miles west of Denver. The workings are said to be on fire and it is feared all are dead.

The fire started about 9 o'clock last night, the result of an explosion, and the timbers of the shaft was ablaze in a moment, cutting off escape in that way.

Shaft number 1 is separated from shaft number 2 by a narrow wall. A rescue party under the direction of Samuel Perry, president of the Layden Coal Co., was endeavoring early today to break down the wall and the twelve imprisoned men could be heard working madly in their efforts to gain freedom. There is no hope of stopping the fire at present and every effort is being made to gain an entrance for the entombed men through shaft number 1.

EXPRESS SERVICE

Board of Trade Would Have It Investigated

By the Interstate Commerce Commission—In This it Cooperates With Many Other Commercial Bodies

The board of trade has sent a communication to the Interstate Commerce commission requesting that body to investigate the express service, rates, regulations and practices in this section.

This action is in accord with the aims and objects of the Express rate conference of the Associated Commercial organizations of the United States, which includes 109 commercial clubs in this country and of which the local board of trade is a member. According to a recent report of the Interstate commerce commission the assets of the different express companies operating in this country were as follows: Adams, $20,455,587.65; American, $45,841,677.65; United States, $15,348,027.02;

Wells-Fargo, $37,883,662.311 current liabilities; Adams, $148,710.16; American, $13,059,371.96; United States, $3,932,576.65; Wells-Fargo, $5,213,220.11.

The net income of the different companies was as follows: Adams, $2,661,243.08; American, $3,276,352.01; United States, $893,035.41; Wells-Fargo, $4,664,375.54. The secretary of the local board of trade will at once communicate with the Interstate commerce commission and forward a copy of the resolution adopted by the directors asking for the investigation mentioned above.

Secretary Murphy has been chosen a member of the transportation committee of the state board of trade.

THE PUMP CONTRACT

Is Now Ready for Signature by the Mayor

Many Visitors Flock to Congratulate Mayor Meehan — Victor Jewett Says He Does Not Want a Recount—Send in Your Bills if the City Owes You, or Pay Up if You Owe the City

The contract for the pump for the Centerville pumping station has been signed by the company to which the contract was granted and the company has furnished the necessary bond for half the contract price.

The contract has yet to be signed by the mayor and the members of the water board and a meeting for that purpose will be held today or tomorrow.

The water department is waiting patiently for the bridge to be built in Lincoln street. Everything is ready for the iron work of the bridge but the iron, it appears, is being delayed. The water department is anxious to see the bridge in position so that the water pipes can be laid there.

The Mayor's Visitors

There were visitors galore at the city hall this forenoon and most of them were there to see Mayor Meehan, presumably for the purpose of congratulating him. Republicans, including members of the present city council, are still wondering how it happened. They are willing to acknowledge that they got an awful trimming at the polls last Tuesday, but they cannot account for it. Quite a number of discussions having to do with the election were heard at city hall this morning, especially on the elevator, which is one of the political chit-chat places at the municipal palace. There were a few republicans aboard who could tell their republican brethren how it all happened, but their republican brethren didn't take kindly to explanations from the other side.

Committee Meetings

The committee on electric wires met this afternoon and went out to view premises named in petitions to be acted upon later. The committee on public baths will meet at 7:30 this evening. The next regular meeting of the board of health will be held one week from today.

About Recounts

It is generally understood that several recounts are going to be asked for, but up to the noon hour today no petitions for the same had been filed at the office of the city clerk. Victor F. Jewett was one of the defeated candidates for alderman on the republican ticket, and he is now president of the common council. Mr. Jewett was at the city hall this forenoon and speaking relative to the report that several recounts would be petitioned for. Mr. Jewett said that while he believed an aldermanic recount would be asked for, he would not be the one to ask for it. He said he did not intend to ask for a recount and did not want to have anything to do with it.

Send in Your Bills

If you have a bill against the city and you want your money this year it is up to you to send in your bill. All bills to be paid this year, must reach the city auditor's office on or before the 24th day of this month. The committee on accounts for 1910 will hold its last meeting about December 23, and all bills that have not been received and prepared for the committee will have to go over to next year and will be included in the February draft for 1911.

HON. J. F. HANLY

Speaker in Y. M. C. A.
Star CourseHE SPOKE ON "THE PERSONAL-ITY OF CHRIST"The Impress He Has Made Upon Human Institutions and Human Thought—Mr. Hanly Spoke With Great Eloquence

Hon. J. F. Hanly was the speaker last night in the Y. M. C. A. Star course. His subject was "The Personality of the Christ." Mr. Hanly is a former governor of Indiana and is an eloquent and impressive speaker. His appearance last night was not his first in Lowell. He had been here before, and made a very splendid impression. The subject assigned him for last night was "The Spirit of Democracy," but he asked to be allowed to give the other lecture instead.

He spoke of the wonderful personality of Christ, his obscure birth, his destiny and his environment. "In the founding of his kingdom," said the speaker, "violence was to have no part. He was to conquer through the sheer moral worth and dignity of his character. The sacrifice was his own life. Only his own blood was to be shed. His time on earth was practically confined to Palestine. The east and the west had not then met. Man's loudest cry could not be heard beyond the confines of his own doorway. There were no railroads, no steamships, no telegraph, no telephone, no means of communication between sections of the same country, except by messenger or courier.

Each nation and community lived unto itself in a degree to us unknown and unimaginable. "Even in our day, a day of knowledge and enlightenment, only an infinitesimal few are able to apprehend world renown. There are not six men in the late century,—no, there are scarcely six men in the histories of the races—whose deeds and names are known to the multitudes that now inhabit the earth. Even the benefactors of the world who are known, are soon forgotten. Only this son of the lowly Nazarene carpenter, only this meager child, has been able to triumph over oblivion. As a man he never traveled beyond the narrow boundaries of the land in which he was born; but somehow, his influence has diffused itself throughout all lands.

"He had no special knowledge of disease or medicine, yet he cured the sick; he was not a lawyer, but he knew the law. Morality and absolute right, he sought to make the law's foundation stones. The principles he declared are finding lodgment more and more in men's hearts and minds everywhere. They are entering into the spirit of the law everywhere. He is no longer a stranger to the court room or the bench. All judgment seats are his.

"He was not an author; we have from his pen absolutely no word. But the gospel he preached, though abiding for years only in the imperfect memories of ignorant fishermen, has survived the vicissitudes and calumnies of the centuries. The successful author of today is able to reach but a few of the world's people; but the gospel of this crucified Jew has been translated into more than 500 languages and dialects. It has reached more editions than man can number. And today, a book that does not have something of him or his gospel in it, does not survive the hour of its publication. No other discourses have been so abiding in their influences or have so moved the world. He has inspired the eloquence of the best of all nations, and of all times for 1800 years; and he is a part of all literature today. "He was not a poet or a musician; but for 19 centuries he has inspired the world's great music. He never painted a picture or carved a piece of statuary in all his life; but the finest concept of the human mind, ever caught by the painter's brush or by the mortal hand transferred to canvas, and the rarest dream that ever leaped from Carrara marble was inspired by him. "He was not an architect; but in little more than 19 centuries the world has been literally filled and crowded with a multitude of architectural forms of marvelous combinations dedicated to his name and consecrated to worship. "He built no houses, but he did build character; and to this day, he possesses among men mysterious, unaccountable creative power—the power to transform the human soul. "He was not a statesman, he took no part in politics of his time. The dominion that he craved was not of states, but of hearts and lives. "He lived a sinless life. There was no fault in him, no moral defect. History affords no compeer."

BALDWIN CASE

Saint and Sinner

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 15.—Beatrice Anita Baldwin, the Boston girl who is seeking a share of the Baldwin estate, heard a lurid story of her mother's life yesterday for the first time, as it was related in court.

There were two versions. One pictured her mother as an unsophisticated lass decoyed to California, and decoyed by "Lucky" Baldwin into living with him under a false contract of marriage.

The other version presented her mother at the age of 24 as an adventurous, the mistress of a Boston millionaire, forced by disturbances in his family to seek new fields and new victims in California. "Lucky" Baldwin was pictured as her prey. The girl sat wide-eyed through the recital of version No. 1.

Her mother goes on the witness stand tomorrow.

ASK RECIPROCITY BRITISH ELECTION

Canadian Farmers Will Favor That Policy

OTTAWA, Ont., Dec. 15.—An invasion of Ottawa by Canadian farmers from far and near began yesterday with the arrival of a small delegation from the Maritime Provinces, the advance guard of delegations of 200 from the province of Ontario and a party of 350 from the far west of Canada. They are delegates to the first Canadian Council of Agriculture.

This is the first movement of the kind which has taken place in Canada, and marks the beginning of an effort on the part of farmers throughout the Dominion to get into personal touch with the law-makers and impress on them the demands of the agricultural interests.

At the convention the delegates from the Maritime Provinces will strongly urge broad reciprocity with the United States. The farmers of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island want easier access to the markets of Boston and New York.

ONE LIFE LOST

IN COLLISION OF VESSELS AT SEATTLE

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 15.—One life was lost and the steamer Kitsap and the launch Columbia were sunk as the result of two collisions in Seattle harbor late yesterday, involving the Columbia, the Kitsap and the steamer Indianapolis. The man who lost his life was Aubrey P. Vene, a passenger on the Columbia. None of the 30 passengers on the Kitsap was injured. The accidents are attributed to heavy fog.

FOR DESERTION

CAPT. O'CONNELL OF REGULARS
DROPPED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Captain John J. O'Connell, of the 23d Infantry, has been dropped, by direction of the president, from the rolls of the United States army for desertion. It is said at the department that after his disappearance a shortage of a considerable amount was discovered in the post exchange funds for which he was responsible.

Captain O'Connell, who is a son of Brig.-Gen. John J. O'Connell, retired, is one of the best known junior officers of the army.

RECEIVED REWARD

FOR DETECTING A MOTORCYCLE
THIEF

C. E. Anderson, of Boston, Mass., is the first man to receive the $25 reward offered by the Department of American Motorcycles for information leading to the arrest and conviction of a person who steals a motorcycle belonging to a member of the F. A. M., says the official organ of that organization.

Anderson is a member of the F. A. M. and was in the store of George N. Anderson, in Boston, one day recently when a stranger brought in a motorcycle for repairs. Anderson recognized the number on the machine as one which had been advertised as stolen. The police were notified and they found the stranger who had been intending to purchase the machine from E. F. Linton, of Somerville, Mass. Linton was arrested and convicted. He has gone to prison for three years and the machine has been returned to its owner, H. W. Robinson, of Waltham, Mass. G. B. Gibson, national treasurer of the F. A. M., has sent Anderson a check for $25.

EVENTFUL CAREER

HENRY PETERS HAD SERVED
TWO COUNTRIES

SWANSCOTT, Dec. 15.—Service in the British navy, the British army and the United States navy marked the eventful life of Henry Peters, who died at his home here yesterday at the age of 91 years. He first enlisted in the English navy, under King George the Fourth, when 14 years of age. In 1849 he enlisted in the British army and served in the Crimean war. He later came to America and for three years served on the brig Perry under Lieut. later Admiral, Foote. At the close of his term of enlistment, Peters returned to England and again entered the British army. During the following two years he saw service in the Katir war in Africa as a member of the Cape Mounted Rifles.

PAUL JONES

TORPEDO BOAT DESTROYER DIS-ABLED

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 15.—A wireless message from Point Arguella, intercepted here, states that the torpedo boat destroyer Paul Jones became disabled off that point yesterday and was in tow of the destroyer Goldsborough. The Paul Jones was on her way to San Pedro from San Francisco in company with the Goldsborough and the Rowan. Nothing is known regarding the nature of the accident to the vessel.

WICKERSHAM'S VIEW

WANTS PUBLICITY FOR LEGIT-
MATE CORPORATIONS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Attorney-General Wickersham, in discussing yesterday his crusade against bucket shops, advocated publicity for legitimate corporations as an assurance of prosperity and expressed favor of a properly framed federal incorporation law.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—The results in the general elections announced last night leave the position of the rival parties unchanged. This is as follows:

Government coalition: Liberals 223; nationalists 61; independent nationalists 9; laborites 38. Total, 331.

Opposition: Unionists 251. Coalition majority, 80.

A further sign of the growing discontent among the unionists over Mr. Balfour's management of the campaign, which started in an editorial in the morning Post was noticeable in a speech made by Austen Chamberlain at Buxton last night. He said that it was no part of the original plan that such a speech should be submitted to a referendum. There was great inconvenience and objections connected with putting a budget to popular vote. He would not himself have made such a proposal.

Many unionists, realizing that there is no hope of bettering their position in this election, favor a policy of negotiation. Sir Edward Clarke, the noted lawyer, speaking in London last night, said that the essential result of this balanced election was that there must be a communication or conference between the parties with a view to the settlement of the constitutional question. It would be intolerable if this issue should be adjourned by election after election. Both the veto bill and the referendum, he declared, must go and the best men of both sides must endeavor to find a solution.

An interesting feature of the election is the candidacy of 37 Jews, the largest number that ever stood for parliament in Great Britain.

Sixteen of them have been elected.

THE GOVERNMENT'S PROGRAM

LONDON, Dec. 15.—According to the Liberal Daily News the government's program for the coming session, in addition to the veto bill, will include electoral reforms, such as the payment of the members of the house of commons and the abolition of plural voting and possibly also a bill for the holding of all elections on the same day. No other important legislation will be attempted, home rule and Welsh disestablishment being postponed until 1912.

LOCAL POLICE COURT

Judge Hadley Gave Interesting Talk on Its History

Before Lowell Historical Society Last Evening—His Honor the Third Justice to Preside Over Police Court

An interesting history of the Lowell police court was given by Judge Samuel P. Hadley before the Lowell Historical Society at Memorial hall. It was the most complete and most interesting historical paper that the society has ever heard, and Judge Hadley enlivened it with anecdotes of the men he has met. The paper will be a valuable contribution to the society. The present police court room was dedicated on March 1, 1875. During the existence of the court Judge Hadley estimates that 250,000 criminal cases have been handled and 35,500 civil cases.

Solon W. Stevens presided at the meeting and introduced Judge Hadley. Mr. Stevens said that Lowell stands among the very first cities of the nation in the matter of morals and the orderly conduct of its citizens. Judge Hadley was introduced as the "first citizen of the city."

The judge began with a description of how the court work of the early township was handled by justices of the peace, and how, as the town grew, a police court was established. The first such court in the commonwealth was in Boston in 1821. The next was in Salem in 1831 and in 1833 Lowell and Newburyport were given police courts. The establishing act contained nine sections and makes interesting reading. Gov. Levi Lincoln approved the act on March 31. The first session was held April 2, 1833, and number one on the criminal docket and the first case to come before the new court was that of Timothy Hoyt vs. Simeon Hardy for assault and battery. The warrant was served by Constable Parker. The defendant pleaded guilty and a fine of $1 and costs was assessed.

There was no jail in those days and the prisoners were sent to Concord and Cambridge. The old brick jail in Western avenue was erected in 1858. A comprehensive history of the various court rooms occupied much time, and proved entertaining, especially where the court was turned out of the Market street building in 1868 to make room for some military companies and the picturesque performances of the court in seeking suitable quarters until 1874, when the city government ordered the present court rooms prepared.

A reference was made to the "Timothy Pearson Court" of 1853 conducted by one Timothy Pearson to satisfy the demands of the prohibition element in enforcing the state prohibition law. Judge Hadley described this court and declared that its end was a relief to all. An interesting anecdote was the establishment of the big fire alarm bell on the Market street court when the court room was in the third story. The big bell fell and caused a panic in the court room which was under it. The next night, June 29, 1853, this new bell sounded for a fire in the same building and Judge Hadley describes the hasty removal of the court records in iron and salt bags collected from S. N. Wood's store, across the street. Jackson hall was used as a temporary court. During the police court's peripatetic performances there came the smallpox epidemic in 1872 and the court room was daily fumigated with burned gun powder.

Judge Hadley is the third justice to preside over the Lowell police court. In 1833, when the court was established, Hon. Joseph Locke of Billerica was appointed justice, with Hon. Nathaniel Wright and Hon. Joel Adams as special justices. Judge Nathan Crosby was appointed to succeed Judge Locke in 1846 and he served 20 years, death ending his services in 1885. Judge Hadley was then appointed.

Prior to this time Judge Hadley had served as clerk of court from 1857 to 1885, thus gaining an intimate personal knowledge of its history during that time. Data provided him with the details of the early history and this was amplified with personal reminiscences of the lawyers and men connected with the earliest dockets on file in the court.

ON MORAL ISSUE

Andrew Carnegie Will Speak on War

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Stimulated by the magnitude of Andrew Carnegie's gift of $11,500,000 for the abolition of war between nations and by the knowledge that the fund will be used largely for objects akin to its own, the American Society for Judicial Settlement of International Disputes will open a three days international conference tonight, more confident than ever before of the ultimate attainment of its aim—the establishment of a permanent tribunal of arbitral justice. Andrew Carnegie will be the principal speaker of the evening, his subject being "The Moral Issue of War," and it is expected that he will make further explanation of the gift announced yesterday. It is admitted today by many of the delegates that while the plans for the administration of the fund have not yet taken definite shape they must needs comprehend hearty cooperation with the movement of the court of arbitral justice as one of the most effectual instruments in the crusade for the abolition of war.

Some idea of the importance of the gathering which begins tonight may be had from the fact that arrangements are being made for the translation of the proceedings into every language and the complete publication thereof, as well as the dissemination of the literature to the four corners of the globe.

Secretary of State Knox, who was to have attended tonight, will not be present because of a conflict of appointment but both will attend other sessions. President Taft's address being deferred to the closing banquet on Saturday evening.

IN BADGER GAME

Four Persons Arrested by Washington Police

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—A daring and sensational badger game has been unearched by the local police, resulting in the arrest of Mrs. James Knott, a handsome young woman, her husband, his brother Benjamin, aged 34, and Alvin Armstrong, 29 years old. All are held under a charge of blackmail except Benjamin Knott, who is under $1000 bonds to appear as a witness. The complainant in the case is Henry Rosenthal, senior member of a mercantile firm in this city. Rosenthal alleges, and the alleged confession made to the police by two of the men arrested confirms his statements, that he was surprised in the room of Mrs. Knott in one of the most fashionable apartment houses of the city by her husband, who pressed a revolver to his head and demanded under pain of death that he sign a check for $5000. Under the persuasion of the menacing weapon Rosenthal complied. Knott thereupon exhibited photographs of Rosenthal and Mrs. Knott that had been taken in her room. The police found a brilliant mercury light suspended above the bed in the apartment and a hole in the wall separating it from the adjoining room, through which the pictures had been made. At this stage in the proceedings Armstrong and Benjamin Knott entered the room and, according to Rosenthal, became parties to the plan to force him to pay his way out of the difficulty in which he found himself. Rosenthal told the story of the affair to his partner, who arranged for a coup by the police. He told Rosenthal to arrange with Knott to call at the store to receive $2000, which Rosenthal had told Knott was all that he would be able to pay in cancellation of the $5000 check. When Knott appeared a detective was on hand and heard the conversation between Knott and Rosenthal and the arrest followed.

CALLED A DRAW

THOUGH FLYNN HAD A SLIGHT ADVANTAGE

PAIL RIVER, Dec. 15.—Dan ("Porky") Flynn of East Boston and Andy Morris of Boston went 12 good rounds to a draw last night before 1200 members of the Colonial club at the Casino on Morgan street. Referee Coté's decision was popularly received, although Flynn had the better of the bout and was the stronger at the finish, having Morris' grumpy and all but gone. It was Morris' great recuperative power that stood him in good

BOY FATALLY INJURED

In Parochial School Fire in Holyoke—Girl Had Leg Broken

HOLYOKE, Dec. 15.—As 400 pupils were marching out of the parochial school of the Immaculate Conception parish today because of a fire in the basement, George Dolsey, aged 10 years, tripped on the top of the steps outside the main entrance to the building and in his fall bowled over a number of children in front of him until at one time between 150 and 200 little ones were piled in a heap on the steps and in the yard. The Dolsey boy's skull was fractured and he is not expected to recover. It was reported also that a little girl had broken her leg.

During the forenoon session fire was discovered in a paper bin in the basement. The fire alarm of the school was sounded and the pupils marched out of the class rooms in good order. A flight of stone steps leads from the ground to the main entrance of the building and it was on the top of the steps that the Dolsey boy slipped. As he fell forward into the children in front of him they were knocked down like a row of dominoes. With the exception of the Dolsey lad and the little girl whose leg was believed to have been broken, none of the children was badly hurt. The fire was extinguished without damage.

LAKE AND TENNEY BOWLING GAMES

Both in Right on Boston Deal

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—It is all over but the passing of a few more dollars and the Boston National baseball club will be in the hands of William Hepburn Russell, L. C. Page and E. J. Murphy. These gentlemen arrived in New York yesterday morning and held a conference with John P. Harris.

The sum of $35,000 was passed to the present owner, making the amount paid down $60,000. Mr. Harris is satisfied now that L. C. Page has come into the deal that there isn't a chance for the transfer being held up.

Harris will remain in New York the remainder of the week in order to be on hand when the Boston men are ready to take up the remainder of the stock.

"I will not say that I am sorry," said Mr. Harris, "for it would have meant that I would have had to devote considerable time to the club had I held the stock. The whole thing developed rapidly when once started and I am sure it will go through."

Harris casts Boston's vote.

Mr. Harris sat in the league meeting throughout the session yesterday and voted upon all questions, as he will continue to do today. Just what day the actual transaction of delivering the club over to the new owners will be is not possible to even guess. That he expects it to happen this week is clearly evident.

C. S. Hill, of the firm of Russell, Ludden, Hill & Young, came over with Messrs. Page and Murphy. He said that the only thing that prevented or delayed the deal was the arrival of a few papers from Boston. "The deal has practically been put through," said he.

"On the managerial question," he added, "Mr. Lake will be satisfied." Then Mr. Hill referred to the story that President Hedges of the Browns was likely to acquire Lake.

"Fred Tenney will be the manager of the Boston club, but this will be announced later. One of the new owners will follow the team from the time of the spring training trip up to the close of the season. In this way it should operate for the benefit of the team, for 'the man behind the gun' will always be present."

"Everything will be open and above board in the conduct of the club. Nothing of interest will be kept from the public and everything possible to build up the club will be done."

Mr. Page didn't have much to say concerning the club, or its prospects, nor did Mr. Murphy. Mr. Russell didn't appear at the Breen.

Hedges Likes Manager Lake.

On the change of managers of the Boston Nationals there is much to say. President Robert Lee Hedges has not picked a manager for the Browns and is not likely to do so until the affairs of the Boston club are cleared up.

When asked if he were going to take a manager from Boston, he said: "I don't see how I can talk business with a man already signed up for 1911 in the National league. I will say, however, that I consider Fred Lake a valuable man for any club."

Manager Lake's attitude is in keeping with the dignified course he has pursued throughout the season. He is signed up for 1911 by President John P. Harris and is letting everyone talk as much as they like. Until the Boston club is purchased by the Russell-Page-Murphy syndicate, and not until he is told one way or the other, is Lake likely to indicate anything more than that he is satisfied.

He is discussing trades for players and not meeting with much success. "There is one thing about every manager of a ball-end club. You are not worried by other managers. If there is anything started you have to do the starting," he said.

Lake's Advice is Given.

Fred Lake said when the little confab broke up that they had not discussed the question of settlement with him, but that all the talk had been as to what was best to build up the team. "I gave them my ideas upon this to the best of my ability," said Lake.

So the mystery is now clear. The Boston men will leave the club. Fred Tenney will manage it, and when the time comes Fred Lake's contract with the Boston club for 1911 will be discussed and a settlement effected.

The club is in the limelight, which is regarded as good advertising, and some time it may be found out of the last peg in the standing.

Lively Contests on the Alleys

Several fast games were played last night, and at each of the local alleys great crowds assembled to watch the progress of the matches. Nichols Pets fell down before the Electric Light team; the Clerks proved too strong for the Solicitors, and the Primrose Quintet was easy for the Wamesits. Two teams from Tyngsboro, the married and the single men played a close game with the big pins, the former winning by 25 pins. The scores:

NOT A CANDIDATE

Alderman-Elect Barrett States His Position

Alderman-elect Andrew E. Barrett is of the opinion that someone is trying to thrust greatness upon him by booming him as a candidate for chairman of the board of aldermen.

Mr. Barrett said to a reporter of The Sun this morning: "Kindly inform my friends that I am not a candidate for chairman of the board of aldermen. Messrs. Connors, Daly and Gallagher have had previous experience in the board, and the choice should lie between them. I have had no experience in that part of the government, and hence I am not seeking a position over men who have had the experience."

POLICE BOARD

The police board held a brief session this morning during which it granted a common victualer license to Patrick Corey of 135 Palke street.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Trading was in small volume at the outset, but there was a good undertone to the market, leading stocks all showing slight advances above yesterday's closing prices. Western Maryland improved 1/2 and Interborough-Metropolitan 1/4.

The tone continued steadily better, but business was small. Fluctuations grew very narrow. Wheeling and Lake Erie first pf. advanced 2. Mo. Pacific 1/2 and Gen. Elec. 1/4.

Trading fell off slightly in the second hour and the market held well, with further gains in the active issues. Prices hardly moved an eighth and business was confined to a handful of stocks.

A downward slide wiped out the fractional advances of the day, but there was no attempt to carry the decline below yesterday's final prices. The market closed dull. Rumors of an earthquake on the Pacific coast were utilized by traders to depress the market in the final hour, but prompt denial of these reports was soon forthcoming. The market remained dull and featureless but at the close generally lower prices were registered.

FIVE HUNDRED A WEEK

Theatrical Manager Makes Offer to Hattie Leblanc

CAMBRIDGE, Dec. 15.—A tub full of mail for Hattie Leblanc, the little French Canadian girl who was acquitted by a jury yesterday of the murder of Clarence F. Glover of Waltham, was received at the Cambridge jail today. Hundreds of souvenir postcards, each bearing a message of congratulation, were in this morning's mail and an immense pile of letters. The letters included many proposals of marriage and several theatrical managers offered the girl a large salary for a stage contract. One Boston theatrical agent made an offer of $500 a week.

Melvin M. Johnson, the girl's chief counsel, was fairly swamped with letters and telegrams of congratulation. His office in Boston today. Hattie remaining at Mr. Johnson's home in Cambridge, where she will be quartered until her departure within a few days for her old home in West Ararat, C. B.

DINED WITH SOCIETY

CAMBRIDGE, Dec. 15.—Wearing a huge bunch of violets at her bosom, at a table loaded with cut glass and silver, with attentive waiters standing behind her chair ready to do her bidding, Hattie Leblanc enjoyed her first supper outside of the East Cambridge jail for more than a year, past, at a fashionable apartment hotel last night. She sat at dining-room Johnson's table in the general dining-room, while on every side of her were evidences of wealth and luxury such as her eyes had never before seen.

As Hattie entered the room with Attorney and Mrs. Johnson, there was an involuntary hush and all eyes were turned upon the little French girl who was beaming with happiness. When the waiter came to take her order, Hattie, without consulting the bill of fare, unthinkingly called for her prison fare—bread and coffee. But before the half smiling waiter could fill the order, Mrs. Johnson came to the rescue of her guest and literally ordered everything on the bill from soups to nuts.

After supper guests of the house insisted upon moving Hattie and so Clarence F. Glover are satisfied that his memory has been sufficiently magnified and his widow's reputation blackened. It is to be hoped that the public will have a rest from the whole miserable affair.

ELMORE'S DECISION

CAMBRIDGE, Dec. 15.—Samuel D. Elmore, executor of the will of Clarence F. Glover, for whose murder Hattie Leblanc was tried and acquitted, issued a statement last night in which he said:

"The Leblanc trial is over and the verdict is rendered. If the Glover brothers who are contesting the will of Clarence F. Glover are satisfied that his memory has been sufficiently magnified and his widow's reputation blackened, it is to be hoped that the public will have a rest from the whole miserable affair."

"I regret the unwarranted and baseless insinuations made during the heat of a most sensational trial, but I am confident to await the judgment of a fair-minded public when the real facts are presented. The statement from the bench that there is not even sufficient evidence to secure an indictment against anyone should be sufficient justification for all my acts."

A representative of the Glover brothers who are contesting the will of Clarence F. Glover issued a statement in their behalf last night, in which he said:

"The Glover brothers are not only willing, but anxious, to do all that they can to add the district attorney in untravelling the mystery surrounding the murder of their brother Clarence."

UNITED WORKERS

Military Fair at Universalist Church

The United Workers of the First Universalist church opened their annual military fair and entertainment at their church last night. The affair attracted a very large crowd and proved one of the most enjoyable social events of the season. Mrs. Bell Dunlap Tuttle had general supervision and she was assisted by many of the women of the church.

The entertainment was in charge of Mrs. Daiselle Dunlap Brown and Mrs. Arthur Gilbert. It consisted of a series of military tableaux, Arthur Colby, George Maguire, Harry Needham, Osmond D. Long and William Henderson taking the solos. A number of the young ladies assisted in the singing. Earlier in the evening a turkey supper was served, during which music was provided by McElroy's orchestra. The supper was in charge of Mrs. William F. Lane, Mrs. Archie McLean and a full committee.

The different tables were presided over as follows: Fancy table, Mrs. L. A. Derby, chairman; gentlemen's handkerchief booth, young women of Mrs. R. D. Tuttle's and Mrs. D. D. Brown's Sunday school classes; candy, Mrs. F. A. Bates, chairman; boys' table, Mrs. Mrs. Drew; children's table, Mrs. Clarence Hemenway, chairman; apron table, Mrs. A. L. Hartford. The fair will be brought to a close tonight, and a large attendance is expected, as the program will be of unusual excellence.

U. S. Bunting, Associate, tonight.

AT THE ARMORY

COMPANY C HELD SOCIAL PARTY LAST NIGHT

A very enjoyable party and dance was held last evening in the Armory hall under the auspices of Co. C, Sixth regiment. Dancing was enjoyed with music by Kiltredge's orchestra. The success of the party was due to the following young men: Corporal Joseph Larkin, general manager; Corporal Doherty, assistant general manager; Private Jewett, floor director; aided by Privates Hayden and Boyle.

NAVAL ACADEMY

WILL GET THREE BATTLESHIPS FOR CRUISE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The battleships Iowa, Indiana and Massachusetts will be assigned by the navy department to the Annapolis naval academy for the annual cruise next summer. These are the vessels on which the middles went abroad this year. In all probability, it is said, the 1911 cruise likewise will extend to foreign ports next year. It will begin about the end of June and last three months.

THE STATE ARMORY

Centre of Increased Military Interest Since Capt. Pearson's Appointment

The militia companies at the armory are all rejoicing over the honor that has come to Captain Pearson in being appointed Adjutant General. Captain Pearson will retire from the company so that a new captain will be selected to fill the place. First Lieut. Peterson will probably be promoted to the captaincy while a successor will then be chosen for his place and also for that of Lieut. Burns recently resigned. It is quite probable that the armory during the coming year will be the scene of some brilliant social functions at which many of the high military dignitaries of the state will be present.

Adjutant Pearson will have certain office hours in Boston, but will attend to his law business in this city during certain hours of the day to be announced early in the year. The appointment of Captain Pearson has directed public interest to the armory and to the military companies in an extraordinary degree. For that reason a sketch of the armory and the work carried on there will be of general interest.

The armory and its companies. The state armory in Westford street was erected in 1859. It contains about 60 rooms, a mess hall and a spacious drill shed. From the outside the building looks like a prison with its barred windows, but the inside is more like a palace, because of the luxury and comfort that can be had within the walls of that splendid structure. Through the kindness of Capt. Walter R. Jewes, the armory, a representative of The Sun was ushered through every room and nook of the building, and much credit is due the armorer and the members of the different militia companies, for the neatness and appearance of every apartment.

The building is equipped with several shower baths, a mess room, where banquets are held frequently; two bowling alleys; and the large drill shed, where dancing, basketball, indoor base ball, revolver and rifle practice are held during the winter months. The companies are planning to open soon a fully equipped gymnasium. The armory is the headquarters of four militia companies. Each of these is formed with 60 privates and three officers, namely: Co. C, 6th regiment, Capt. Gardner W. Pearson, 1st Lieut. George W. Peterson and 2nd Lieut. James Burns; Co. G, 6th regiment, Capt. Walter R. Jewes, 1st Lieut. Thos. W. Doyle and 2nd Lieut. Fred A. Mottram; Co. K, 6th regiment, Capt. Jas. W. Greig, 1st Lieut. John P. Davis and 2nd Lieut. Harry McElroy; Co. M, 6th regiment, Capt. Philip McElroy, 1st Lieut. Bernard McArdle and 2nd Lieut. Daniel Christian.

The drill nights are as follows: Tuesday, Co. M; Wednesday, Co. G; Thursday, Co. K; Friday, Co. C; Monday and Saturday evenings are reserved for militia.

Co. D of the Second Corps Cadets, that also had its headquarters in the Westford street armory, was transferred to Salem, Mass., some twelve years ago. Each company has a large reception room equipped with a piano, an amusement room, where all sorts of games are played, also an outdoor room, where all the men's equipments are neatly kept in such a way that they can be gotten in a minute's notice.

The companies are doing well financially, for every now and then socials and dances, basketball games and other entertainments are given before the public for the benefit of the organizing company. The 120 men who meet in the armory associate together and have the most friendly feelings for each other.

A series of sports will be enjoyed this winter in militia circles. At the present time Major Sweetser is organizing a league among Companies C and G of the 6th regiment of Lowell, A of Wakefield and H of Stoneham. The sports will include indoor baseball, basketball, bowling and revolver and rifle tournaments. Wall scaling is very popular among the members of Co. G, but it was abandoned three years ago for lack of interest in this military exercise on the part of the other companies. Co. G possesses many beautiful trophies won in wall scaling contests.

Co. C holds the record for trophies. It has over a score and one-half of rich prizes on exhibition in its rooms.

The militiamen are very fond of music, and just far that Co. K has organized a six piece orchestra. W. S. Waller is the leader and he will undoubtedly give several concerts this winter.

Captain Jewes was appointed armorer March 1st of the present year. His family occupies the upper floor of the building. He is capable and conscientious and does his work to the satisfaction of all.

Militiamen have access to the building from 8 a. m. to 11 p. m.

Enlistments are taken in the militia from 18 to 45 years, and the applicant must be a citizen of the United States.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

What is expected to be the comedy hit of the present season in local dramatic offerings is Doherty-Collins & Co.'s production of "The Arrival of Kitty," which will be seen at the Opera House on Friday and Saturday, Dec. 16-17. The play is the latest product of the pen of the successful author, Norman Lee Swarlow, and is considered to be his best effort. It is a pure comedy and is said to sparkle with wit and abound in the most mirth provoking incidents and situations.

"THE YANKEE GIRL"

Blanche Ring is announced as the welcome attraction at the Lowell Opera House, Monday afternoon and evening, Dec. 26, when the merry singer of "Rings On My Fingers," "Yip-I-Addy," and countless other popular classics will be seen for the first time in Lowell in her new musical play, "The Yankee Girl." In this vehicle Miss Ring has just terminated an engagement at the Majestic theatre, Boston, and the piece also has to its credit a lengthy and prosperous run at the New York Herald Square theatre.

"The Yankee Girl" is the work of George V. Hobart and Sylvia Holt, the former having contributed an amusing and interesting book and the latter a tuneful score. Mr. Hobart's story abounds in humorous situations furnishing Miss Ring with generous opportunities to display at their best all those delightful talents for fun making that have made her so immensely popular. Miss Ring's songs include "The Top of the Morning," "Love Among the Roses," "Come Josephine in My Flying Machine," "Nora Malone," and in response to an insistent demand she sings for an encore "Rings On My Fingers."

The supporting company is a distinguished one headed by Harry Gill-foil and containing such favorites as William F. Carleton, Hallday and Carey, Margarette Wright, Juliette Lange, Margaret Malcom, Paul Porter, Juan Villana, Cyril King, Henry Bergman, Alfred DeBail and Fannie Kidston. There is a large and beautiful chorus of more than usual singing and dancing ability.

THEATRE VOYONS

Today affords the last chances to see the excellent bill shown at the Theatre Voyons, featuring "The Death of Admiral Coligny," an historical picture, but one so well played and dramatically written that it holds the attention every second. "In the Wilderness," a western pioneer story, is fine and a real laugh producing comedy, is a favorite with many. Tomorrow a biographical subject will be the feature and its splendid love story, told with exceptional art, cannot fail to please. A strong dramatic story is told in "Her First Husband's Return," and the plot is a real novelty in many ways. Imagine the plight of a woman happily married to find her first husband, who she supposed dead, in her home endeavoring to rob the safe. The story is well carried out and right and true to life and is a real laugh.

Try ALLEOTONE for Your Cold, Sore Throat or Feverishness.

ALLEOTONE is made from exactly the same elements from which your body is made.

All the medicine you ever took was made largely from elements that are foreign to your body,—many of them poisonous to a greater or lesser degree. The principle of indication is usually to develop unnatural conditions of the body.

ALLEOTONE works on an absolutely different principle. It supplies the cells directly with those elements which they lack, and cures the diseased condition exactly as water cures thirst, (which is a disease.)

ALLEOTONE is a perfect remedy for Colds, Grippe, Tonsillitis, Fevers and all infectious conditions.

When the cells of your body are in normal condition, they resist the attack of disease germs. When the cells receive a deficient amount of their sustaining elements, the disease germs get a foothold and any kind of sickness is likely to result.

ALLEOTONE supplies directly to the cells the elements which they need, and from which they were originally made. It contains these elements and nothing else. It is absolutely harmless in any dosage and has no unfavorable reaction whatever.

Hundreds of physicians and hospitals are using ALLEOTONE more and more frequently, because there is nothing else which so effectively enables the body to resist or throw off germ infection.

We do not urge you to take Alleotone for serious ailments without doctor's advice. But we do urge you to take Alleotone for Colds, Grippe, Quinsy, Sore Throat, Tonsillitis, Headaches and the Grippe-like aches which are so often the forerunners of serious diseases.

NEW GAME

WOMAN ROBBED OF $60 IN BOSTON

BOSTON, Dec. 15.—It cost Mrs. Mellicie Libman, 62 years old, of 102 Salem street, $60 for her initiation into a new game of confidence yesterday afternoon. She was accosted by a man who wanted her to direct him to a tailor shop. At that point another man hurried by, dropping a purse, which Mrs. Libman's vis-a-vis picked up, opened and counted out $325.

Just then the other man came back and accused both Mrs. Libman and her companion of having stolen the purse. He searched the man and claimed not to find the purse. He then threatened to call a policeman if Mrs. Libman did not open her handbag and prove his purse wasn't in there.

Mrs. Libman complied, taking $60 of her own money from the bag. The men sprang at her, choked her, got the money and escaped.

THE LEBLANC CASE

There has been altogether too much gush over Hattie Leblanc, "the innocent child." If Mrs. Glover were on trial for murder, Hattie Leblanc would be painted as a fiend and Mrs. Glover as the wronged and persecuted wife. The jury in the Leblanc case must have felt put out on a great many occasions. District Attorney Higgins claimed that he was not fairly treated by the court or by the opposing counsel, but after the ruling out of Glover's dying statement he held his own at every point and made the most of a weak case.

Mrs. Glover will not be molested unless there be found some far more damaging evidence against her. All the evidence brought out during the trial served only to cause a doubt in the minds of the jury as to Hattie Leblanc's guilt. There would be fully as much doubt as to Mrs. Glover's guilt unless more evidence be discovered.

It is too bad that any innocent prisoner should suffer a year's imprisonment awaiting the leisure of the courts. Another phase of the case is, that it is very difficult to convict anybody for the murder of a man like Glover, especially when there is any provocation to be offered in the prisoner's behalf.

DEMOCRATS RESPONSIBLE FOR RESULTS

The results of Tuesday's election will give Mayor Meahan and the democratic board of aldermen to a great extent the control of next year's city government. That will place upon them the responsibility for results. They will be expected to give the citizens the best possible administration and that can be done only by conservative action, and devotion to the city's interests.

Mayor Meahan did not find his heaviest gains in democratic wards, which is but another proof of the same spirit that defeated Col. Carmichael as candidate for congress. It appears that there is a number of democrats who think they should be placed in positions by the mayor. Under the conditions prevailing at the present time, it is difficult for the mayor, if he were so disposed, to find places for a lot of men who depend on politics for a living. There are too many who imagine that the city owes them a livelihood. Some of them run for office, but when they find the people do not want them they had better go to work at some honest occupation.

Every democrat in Lowell should feel gratified that the two French candidates on the aldermanic ticket were elected by such handsome votes. In future this large element in our population should have a good representation in the board of aldermen. The republicans have not given it the recognition it deserves in the past and it is well that the democrats had the fairness to do so even at this late date. It may be that in the near future we shall have a new charter in which party designation will be dropped. Even then the French citizens must receive the recognition to which they are entitled in our city government. Where the interests of the entire city are to be conserved it is but reasonable that one of the most important and progressive elements of our population should be considered. We have learned a good political lesson from Tuesday's election.

EDUCATING PUBLIC OPINION FOR CIVIC BETTERMENT

In the city of Philadelphia has been started a movement for the education of public opinion on matters municipal. It is conducted by The City Club which holds weekly meetings for citizens generally. These meetings are addressed by able speakers on matters of general interest to the citizens. Some speakers deal with the work of city departments, showing what can be accomplished by following out a fixed plan from year to year, while others discuss various matters of public interest, showing what has been done in various lines of progress by other cities. Here too are shown what the people must do to ensure good government, the vigilance necessary to prevent corruption and the scrutiny of candidates for office in order to prevent bad men from being elected.

It is now a common expedient resorted to by candidates for office to assure the people that the present government officials are bad, that reform is necessary and that they, the men who make the charges, can accomplish all the needed reforms. These professional demagogues are being exposed by the City Club of Philadelphia so that the voters are not likely to be misled by any political mountebank that bids up with a new nostrum for the cure of municipal ills. Thus public sentiment is being enlightened, the voters are really being educated in the business of helping run a city and the result must ultimately be reflected in civic betterment. Philadelphia is thus setting a good example to other cities as she has set them a bad example in the past.

No such systematic work for moulding public opinion can be done, however, without a public hall in which to hold mass meetings of citizens. That is a prime consideration and it is one in which our own city of Lowell is lame. We have no public hall and for that reason we have very much fewer public meetings than we otherwise would have. This public need must be remedied as soon as possible. It is to be hoped that the city government of next year will get to work on this problem without delay and see that the public hall matter be held up no longer by the differences between the commission and the city council.

With a public hall the board of trade, or any other organization interested in the city's good, could conduct meetings for the formation of public opinion upon such important subjects as municipal economy, charter reform, uniform accounting, the centering of responsibility and the modes of enforcing the popular will. During the years since the last burning of Huntington hall the city has suffered very seriously for lack of a public hall, as a great many public meetings would have been held that for lack of a hall were let go by default. With a public hall there would be no need of the mill-gate and street corner rallies and these should then be prohibited in the interests of public order.

Wood Norton, the Worcestershire home of the Duc d'Orleans, where King Manuel has been celebrating his twenty-first birthday, is in external appearance little more than the average English manor house, but the stamp of royalty is over it all, says the Westminster Gazette. The fleur-de-lys is no more ornamental symbol, for at Wood Norton "Philip, Duke of Orleans" keeps royal state and holds his court. He has his retinue of "gentlemen of honor," representatives of some of the oldest families of the French noblesse, under the direction of the Duc de Luyne; and his duchess has her dames d'honneur of equally royal lineage. And in this environment of royal and courtly ceremonial "King Philippe" exerts and receives the homage due to a sovereign.

IN AUSTRALIA

World's C. E. Convention Will be Held

BOSTON, Dec. 15.—The next world's convention of the World's Christian Endeavor Union will be held in Sydney, Australia, in 1914, the annual meeting of the union held in this city yesterday having so decided. At an earlier meeting of the executive committee of the board of trustees of the United Society of Christian Endeavor the program of the coming international Christian Endeavor convention at Atlantic City, N. J., next July were discussed, as were the plans for the new international headquarters building, soon to be erected on Huntington avenue, this city.

Reporting to the executive committee, President Francis E. Clark, in common with the secretary and treasurer of the United society, declared that more Christian Endeavor societies had been formed of late than ever in the history of the movement and that the body is in an unusually healthy financial condition. There is now no country in the world without its Christian Endeavor society, President Clark reported.

An invitation to the World's Christian Endeavor Union to hold their convention following that to be held in Sydney, Tokio, Japan, in 1917, was referred to the executive committee, for decision at a later date.

MRS. EDDY'S WILL

Filed for Probate at Concord Yesterday

CONCORD, N. H., Dec. 15.—The will of Mary Baker Eddy was filed in the probate office for Merrimack county at 2.15 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The paper was filed by Henry M. Baker, the executor named in the document, who was accompanied by Frank S. Streeter as counsel. Judge Charles R. Corning received and allowed the will in the common form. Mr. Baker immediately petitioned for its approval in solemn form and a hearing thereon was ordered to follow the giving of notice as required by law.

The will filed yesterday afternoon was that executed in 1903 with codicils of that year and 1904 and with it were filed the papers relating to the family settlements of November, 1909.

ATTACK COMING

Government to Go After Electrical Trust

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The government's attack on the so-called electrical trust will begin before New Year's day, unless present plans are changed.

On a certain date, being kept secret, between now and the beginning of 1911, a bill in equity against one section of the combine will be filed in some United States court east of the Mississippi river.

Then will begin what the department of justice considers the mammoth trust busting suit of its history and one which involves a test of the Sherman law never brought before. The government's case will depend largely upon the interpretation of the patent laws.

One of the government's prosecutors declares that when the action is instituted it will be recognized as far eclipsing the Standard Oil case in magnitude and public importance, and one conservative estimate is that it will cost the government no less than $1,000,000 to prosecute to the end.

The investigation is not completed, but it has disclosed an object of attack of such proportions that the department of justice has abandoned any idea of tackling the combine as a whole and intends to fight the so-called trusts in sections.

The bill soon to be filed will be against one of the 18 or 20 divisions of the alleged combine, which have been one of the department of justice report having found doing business under a general head.

Our Overcoat Salos have been so satisfactory as to furnish the best possible proof that we anticipated public taste and kept in closest touch with Fashion.

You will find today good assortments here in all the various styles of overcoats that are most in demand.

Dress Overcoats

Made by Rogers, Peet & Co.

From a variety of new materials, that you'll not find elsewhere in overcoats ready for service. These fashionable materials are made from exceptionally fine wools, making them much lighter in weight than ordinary overcoat fabrics—while they are equally as warm.

You have comfort without the burden of weight. Made in black, and from Oxford and Cambridge mixtures of diagonal or herringbone weaves, but with the pattern so inconspicuous as not to detract from the dress character of the garments. Of correct length, fly front, semi-box back, with velvet collar, lined with fine worsteds, finished with deep silk yokes, exquisitely tailored. These

WAS TOO LENIENT

Taft Benevolence Was Misplaced

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The immigration laws are to be enforced a little more strictly at New York as the result of disappointing news which has come to President Taft as a sequel to the leniency he exercised one day last October, when, sitting for the first time as a court of appeals at Ellis Island, he directed the admission of a Welsh miner who had seven children and who had been turned down by the medical examiners.

Shortly after the immigrant was admitted complaints began to come from creditors at home. By the direction of the president, to whose attention the matter was brought, the immigrant was asked to explain, and sent this letter:

"I am sorry to tell you we are in very low circumstances. We can't get any work that we can do here. It is too 'heavy' for me owing to my medical condition. We made a big mistake in coming to this country. I thought my sister was in better circumstances. She hasn't got anything to help us with; not one cent I haven't got. We could do our work all right at home. Kindly answer back."

WILLIE HOPPE

Noted Billiardist Figures in Elopement

BALTIMORE, Dec. 15.—Willie Hoppe, the wizard of the billiard cue, and Miss Alice B. Walsh, daughter of Thomas B. Walsh of 95th street and Riverside drive, were the stellar figures in a romance that ended in a marriage at the cardinal's residence last night. Miss Walsh's age is given in the census as 21, and the bridegroom's age as 22.

The elopement was decided upon because of the refusal of Mr. Walsh to give his consent, though he said he liked Hoppe quite well. The acquaintance of Mr. Hoppe and Miss Walsh began at Atlantic City several years ago, where Mr. Hoppe saved the young lady from drowning.

While in Scranton last week Hoppe sent a message to Miss Walsh to meet him at a drug store at 42nd street and Broadway, New York. From there, with two companions, they came to Baltimore, where, after securing a license, they hurried to the cardinal's residence, where the knot was tied by the Rev. Fr. Glavin.

NARROW ESCAPE

Mr. and Mrs. Dunn Overcome by Coal Gas

Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Dunn were nearly asphyxiated yesterday morning at their home, 35 Grand street. When Mr. and Mrs. Dunn retired Tuesday night the door of the stove had been left open, while the damper was closed. About 2 o'clock in the morning, Mrs. Dunn attempting to rise, fell heavily to the floor, unconscious. Her husband happily awoke at that time and though which filled the room was able to call his parents, who slept in an adjoining room. Dr. Theophilus Laurin, who was immediately called, quickly revived the patients. Mr. and Mrs. Dunn are resting comfortably today.

ESTIMATES CUT

IN APPROPRIATION BILL AS REPORTED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, appropriating $35,225,219, or $432,875 less than the estimates, was reported to the house yesterday by the appropriations committee. It is the fourth of the big supply measures. The committee points out that in this bill more than $250,000 a year is saved in the treasury department alone by the reductions of positions.

MISS IDA WILSON

Makes Debut in Boston Opera Company

Miss Ida Wilson, a Lowell girl, who was connected with the Boston opera forces last season, made her debut with the Boston Opera company last night, singing the role of "Margarite" in the first presentation in America of Raoul Laparra's opera "La Habanera." Miss Wilson made a very fine impression. She has a deep contralto voice of good quality and much promise.

INSURANCE AGENTS

MET AT MANCHESTER, N. H., YESTERDAY

MANCHESTER, N. H., Dec. 15.—The New Hampshire State Association of Fire Insurance Agents held its meeting in this city yesterday. Dinner was had at the Derryfield, and an exhibition was given by the fire department. The officers elected were: President, L. C. Merrill of Concord; first vice-president, S. M. Kent, Portsmouth; second vice-president, F. M. Sise, Portsmouth; third vice-president, F. J. Shepard, Derry; secretary and treasurer, A. S. Banton, Manchester; executive committee, F. L. Kendall, Rochester; True E. Prescott, Laconia; John McCallister, Newport; C. M. Edgely, Manchester; C. L. Klag, Milford.

FATAL LAUGH

SOMMERS LAUGHED HIMSELF TO DEATH

LACROSSE, Wis., Dec. 15.—Laughing heartily at the joke of a friend, Albert Sommers, aged 58, gasped and sank to the ground yesterday. He died a few hours later. Physicians are of the opinion that the strain of laughing induced a stroke of paralysis.

PITTMAN HOME

NICARAGUAN PRISONER BACK WITH MOTHER

BOSTON, Dec. 15.—Showing no ill effects from his experience, William P. Pittman, soldier of fortune and erstwhile prisoner of war in Nicaragua, whose detention by the Nicaraguan government caused international exchanges, arrived at the home of his mother in Cambridge yesterday. Pittman became interested in the Nicaraguan situation while working as an engineer on the Panama canal. He enlisted in General Juan Estrada's army and while doing his part to oust Zelaya from the presidency of the republic, was captured and cast into a Nicaraguan dungeon.

COASTAL CANAL

WILL DEVELOP COMMERCIAL INTERESTS

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—The projected intra-coastal canal through the Atlantic seaboard and Gulf States connecting the bays and rivers which indent the coast line from Boston, Mass., to Galveston, Tex., will not only be navigable for colliers and battleships in time of war, but will also develop commercial and manufacturing interests. Such was the gist of the report submitted yesterday by the committee on national rivers and harbors of the New York board of trade and transportation at the monthly meeting.

PRESENTED CHAIN

HORMISDAS DUCHARME HELD BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mr. Hormisdas Ducharme, a prominent member of Court St. Antoine, C. O. E., was royally feted Tuesday evening at 558 Merrimack street. A large number of his friends gathered there to offer him congratulations on the occasion of his 25th anniversary. A fine gold chain engraved with the emblem of the order was presented to him by Miss Yvonne Bisson, who made a fine presentation speech. Vocal and piano selections were enjoyed during the evening and refreshments were served.

CATHOLIC NOTES

Rev. Fr. Watello, O. M. I., pastor of St. Joseph's parish and Rev. Fr. J. N. Jacques, pastor of St. Louis' parish, attended yesterday the meeting of the rectors of the different churches of the diocese, which was held in the Boston cathedral. Today the curates of the diocese are attending a similar meeting.

Rev. Fr. Delmas, O. M. I. and Rev. Fr. Joseph Pallie, O. M. I., of Saskatchewan, Que., are the guests of the French Oblate Fathers of this city. Rev. Fr. Pallie is a Lowell boy and he had the pleasure of renewing old acquaintances yesterday.

FOSS RESIGNS

AS DIRECTOR OF CHICAGO R. R. COMPANY

BOSTON, Dec. 15.—The directors of the Chicago Junction Railways and Union Stockyards company have accepted the resignation of Governor-elect Eugene Foss as a director. Mr. Foss was charged by the republicans with being a director of a "corporation owned by the beef trust," during the last state election campaign, when he accused the republican party of being largely responsible for the high cost of living. Mr. Foss presented his resignation last spring but its acceptance was deferred until now.

The grand master's address referred to the prosperous condition of the craft giving allegiance to the grand lodge, the membership now being nearly 59,000, distributed among 241 lodges, three of which are in Chili and three in China. There had been a large net increase in enrollment despite the fact that more than 200 had died. He alluded to the visitations he had paid to lodges, and the laying of corner stones for new halls devoted to the uses of the fraternity. A dispensation had been issued for a new lodge in Malden. The effort for a Masonic home had been productive of good results.

There had been raised and paid in for the home $127,000, as shown by the board of trustees having in charge that project, and it was the first report since the organization less than a year ago. In addition there is in sight $40,000 resources. The receipts within the last month have been large and many lodges that have contributed are still engaged in securing funds of the constitution were adopted and one affecting miscellaneous regulations is to the effect that the grand master, for the time being, should be the president of the trustees of the Masonic education and charity trust.

The result of the election was as follows: Dana J. Flanders of Malden, RWGM; Samuel Hauser of Boston, RWGM; James L. Sherman of New Bedford, RWJGW; Charles H. Ramsay of Weymouth, RWGT; Thomas W. HOW JUSTICE IS DISPENSED IN BARRE, ME.

BARRE, Dec. 15.—Before Trial Justice Mathew Walker, yesterday morning, Francke Dilecco of South Barre was fined $25, which he paid, and Salvatore Delebero, also of South Barre, was ordered to leave Barre within 24 hours, which order Deputy Sheriff D. J. Rice will see is enforced.

Because of trouble over a game of cards at South Barre, the two men met on the street of South Barre Monday morning, and Francke Dilecco fired a revolver, he claims into the air. Delebero claims he has a wound on the side of his head where the bullet plowed up the flesh on his head. Dr. Walter S. Bates testified yesterday that he did not think the wound on Delebero's head was that of a bullet wound.

DIVORCED WIFE OF "JACK" CUDAHY PROVIDED FOR IN WILL

CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—Mrs. Edwina Cowan Cudahy, divorced wife of "Jack" Cudahy of Kansas City, is here to learn what provisions were made for her and her four children in the will of her father-in-law, the late Michael Cudahy, whose wealth has been estimated at $20,000,000.

Under an arrangement made before his death, Mr. Cudahy provided that a fund of $100,000 be held in trust for his four grandchildren, and the daughter-in-law was given an annuity of $5000.

Mrs. Cudahy refused to discuss the will at her apartments. Neither would she make any statement as to the "past, present or future," as she put it.

Larceny Charged

Edward F. Reardon, charged with the larceny of $40 from the Home Coal Co., pleaded not guilty to the complaint and at the request of his attorney the case was continued until Monday. The government claims that some time ago Reardon went to the Home Coal Co.'s office and ordered two tons of coal. He presented a check to the amount of $66 signed Edward B. Brady and drawn on the Lowell Trust Co. The clerk telephoned to the bank and was informed that Mr. Brady had an account there. The check was accepted and $40 was returned to Reardon as the coal cost $18. The check was later cashed and an unsuccessful attempt was made to deliver the coal, for Reardon had given a wrong address. The defendant was found later at his home in Larrage street and arrested for larceny.

Selling Oleomargarine

T. C. Mooney was found guilty of selling oleomargarine for straight butter and was fined $50. Another complaint charging him with selling without a license was placed on file. Mooney appealed on the first complaint.

RACE WITH SHARKS

HALF STARVED SEAMAN SWAM ASHORE

VICTORIA, B. C., Dec. 15.—After drifting six days without food on a derelict, Theodore Anderson swam to shore on the west coast of Australia. He told a thrilling story of the disaster that had brought death to every other member of the crew. News of the tragedy was brought here last night by the steamer Moana from Brisbane. The derelict was a wooden lugger of 20 tons, the Hugh Norman. She was sailing down the coast from Broom reef. The dingy was launched and all members of the crew except Anderson and the captain boarded her. The little boat drifted away and was swamped. All her occupants were drowned. The captain ordered Anderson to jump in after the dingy but seeing three sharks cruising in the vicinity, he refused. Later the lugger drifted off the reef and the captain leaped overboard and tried to swim ashore but he was attacked and eaten by sharks. Next day Anderson decided to risk all in an effort to reach land. He took him one hour to swim ashore and he was pursued by sharks but escaped them.

George H. Wood has bought the entire stock of the Grant Jewelry company, and has held a special sale on the stock for the past few weeks, during which time he has managed to do away with considerable of the old stock. Although the demand made during the sale by the public on account of the extremely low prices was large, the cream of the stock has not materially decreased, with the result that most the several hundred pieces which would make acceptable Christmas gifts can still be found in the stock, and can be purchased at a low figure. Additional to this, Mr. Wood has secured several new shipments of stock which he has arranged in the store formerly occupied by the Grant Co., and those thinking of giving gifts in the holiday season will find this store to have just what they had in mind. While you should pay a visit to the Merrimack street store do not fail to visit the Central street establishment, for here, in the largest jewelry store in the city, he has several thousand articles which would make ideal and proper gifts.

Mr. Wood, unlike the other dealers in this city, will sell you things at wholesale as well as retail prices.

Thinking of what to give is found by many to be the hardest feature of gift giving. For the purpose of assisting those contemplating gift giving we mention the following articles: Diamonds, gold and silver watches for ladies and gents, manure and toilet sets, silver tea sets, comb and brush sets, rings, lockets, bracelets, umbrellas and several hundred other things too numerous to mention. When quality is considered you will find that those articles sold in the Wood establishments are those governed by the guarantee that holds.

FRANK B. TRULL

To Build New Residence on Andover Street

Frank B. Trull, whose home was destroyed by fire several weeks ago, has been granted a permit to build a new residence in Andover street, beyond the Clark road. The building will contain nine living rooms, pantries and bath rooms. It will be 39 by 45 feet, two and one-half stories. The estimated cost is $3000.

William J. Gilmore has been granted a permit to convert a barn at the rear of 39 Hoyt street into a cottage house of six rooms. The estimated cost of the change is $700.

AMBASSADOR

DENIES STORIES OF SLAUGHTER OF PRISONERS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The reports from the scene of revolts in the province of Chihuahua, Mexico, to the effect that General Navarro, the commander of the government forces, had given orders that no prisoners were to be taken, has aroused the indignation of Senator De la Barra, the Mexican ambassador. He declared today that the statements that the government troops were ruthlessly bayoneting all captives were absolutely untrue.

"I cannot too emphatically deny the accuracy of these statements," he said. "The source from which they come should very properly cast suspicion upon them. It is quite plain that they are put out by the rebels in a last desperate effort to excite sympathy on the part of the American people. They have lost in battle, are unable to longer conceal the falsity of their statements as to fictitious victories which they have been uttering, and are now driven to this last expedient, which I am sure will not avail them when the American people consider the source of the alleged news."

"FAKE" PROMOTER

ACCORDING TO THE POLICE IS UNDER ARREST

NEW HAVEN, Dec. 15.—George Hutchinson, alias Hatch, who, it was charged, was obtaining money under false pretenses by offering positions as managers of the various branches of a chain of 25 cent stores he proposed to establish to anyone who would furnish the bond he required, and whose arrest occurred yesterday afternoon, was arraigned in court today, but was granted a continuance of his case until Saturday morning. He did not furnish the bond of $500 set by the court and was locked up. According to the police Hutchinson represented himself to be general manager of a recently formed New York corporation by the name of "The 25 cent stores" and had a number of printed circulars bearing the letterhead of the company and the address, 124 Broadway, New York. Hutchinson is said to have told the police that he was formerly employed as an agent by the chamber of commerce of Boston and later by an insurance company of Boston. When searched at police headquarters a traveling card of the Marquis was found on him and when questioned he said that he was an organizer for them and had recently formed a lodge in Norwich. He claims residence in Randolph, where, he says, he has a wife.

HELD IN $3000

YOUTH USED REVOLVER IN A QUARREL

BROCKTON, Dec. 15.—George Arthur Lockwood, 18, of East Bridgewater, formerly of Newport, N. H., was held for the grand jury in $3000 in police court today on a charge of assault with intent to murder John T. Adams, 15, of East Bridgewater, at East Bridgewater last night. Adams was shot through the left shoulder, a bullet from a 32 calibre revolver narrowly missing the jugular vein. He was able to appear in court. The shooting followed a quarrel in which Adams knocked Lockwood down with his fist. It was testified Adams was running away from Lockwood when shot.

COL. ROOSEVELT

ADVISES HARVARD STUDENTS TO ENTER POLITICS

CAMBRIDGE, Dec. 15.—Seven hundred Harvard students today listened to an address given by Col. Theodore Roosevelt to the members of the "governmental class." The colonel advised all of the members of the class to go into politics after they are graduated. He said that the training they were receiving at Harvard would eminently fit them for political work. Colonel Roosevelt described his political policies.

He denounced the method of making nominations for political offices by which men who have had no previous experience in public office are given the preference because they have made no enemies.
